Oil be back!

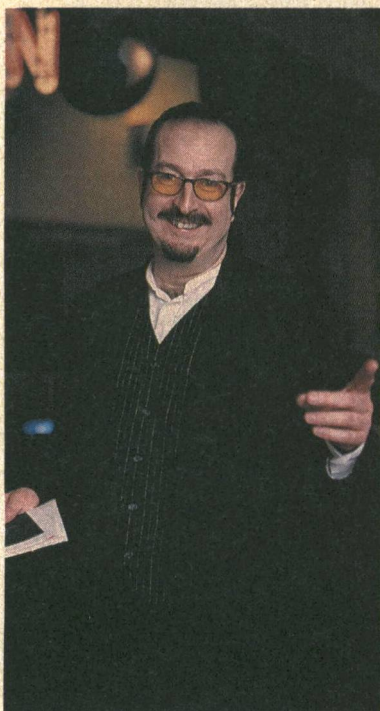

Dallas is back - nearly 20 years after it first gripped Britain on 13 September 1978 - and this time it's running every weekday from the first episode to the last (UK Gold, from Monday 15th, 11.00am, 2.00pm). In case you didn't know, that's 356 episodes, and in several of them eagle-eyed viewers will spot a young Brad Pitt, who played Charlie Wade's boyfriend. Everything was big in Dallas, especially the hair, as this picture of Lucy (Charlene Tilton), Sue Ellen (Linda Gray) and Pam (Victoria Principal) shows. But even Dallas addicts might struggle to count the huge number of lovers chalked up by the monstrous JR Ewing, played by Larry Hagman. It was 89 - and just for the record, he had 106 love scenes, did 211 bad business deals, was dunked in the Southfork pool 16 times, and wore 53 different stetsons. Of those 89 lovers, seven also had affairs with his deadly rival Cliff Barnes, who was played by Ken Kercheval, while Hagman and Kercheval were the only actors to remain with the show all the way through. Meanwhile, you can catch the premiere of Dallas: JR Returns (Sky Movies Screen 1, Monday 1st, 3.00pm), which picks up the story five years after the series finished. The now penniless JR is determined to claw his way back to the top, but it means taking on his old enemy, Cliff Barnes. Just how far is JR prepared to go? Need you ask? BRIAN VINER

THE world's first global music news show starts on CNN this month, with at least one face that will be familiar to British viewers. The show is called Worldbeat, and Steve Wright will host Flipside, a segment featuring music news and interviews with artists in Europe. Worldbeat will be broadcast to 200 million people in 210 countries and it should have some interesting results on its weekly Top 10 Global Album chart. The show will originate from New York, but go on the road for special international editions. Executive producer Tim Lister says it's the only global stage open to music artists all over the world. 'From the townships of South Africa to the backstreets of Havana, we'll find out what the world is listening to,' he says. CNN, from Saturday 6th, 7.30pm

FOLLOWING the success of its live boxing – which began with Frank Bruno's humbling at the fists of Mike Tyson, and has since followed the triumphs of Naseem Hamed – Sky Box Office is preparing for its first live music event, Robbie Williams at the Forum in London. It's not the first concert to be transmitted on Sky Box Office. Music for Montserrat, the concert organised by Sir George Martin in aid of Montserrat volcano victims, was also shown, but not until the day after the event. Meanwhile, Williams, who rarely uses a muffler when he blows his own trumpet, says he is 'chuffed' that his 15-date UK tour sold out so quickly, and is delighted that 'the thousands of my fans who couldn't get tickets can now watch it live in their front rooms.' The concert will feature songs from the former Take That star's double platinum album Life Thru a Lens. It's available to Cable & Wireless residential customers for £9.95. Sky Box Office, Wednesday 3rd, 8.00pm

A COMPETITION in Coronation Street magazine has determined the fans' six favourite episodes, which are to run back to back in a three hour Street-fest. The show's archivist, Daran Little, reckons the first four years, from 1960 to 1964, produced the finest episodes. 'The characters were a dream,' he says. 'It was kitchen sink drama, A Taste of Honey, life's a bitch, I'm not going to rot here, shut up you silly cow – all that sort of thing.' Little is also fond of the years between 1976 and 1982, when Bet Lynch (pictured left), and Stan and Hilda Ogden were at their peak. Granada Plus, Saturday 20th, from 3.00pm

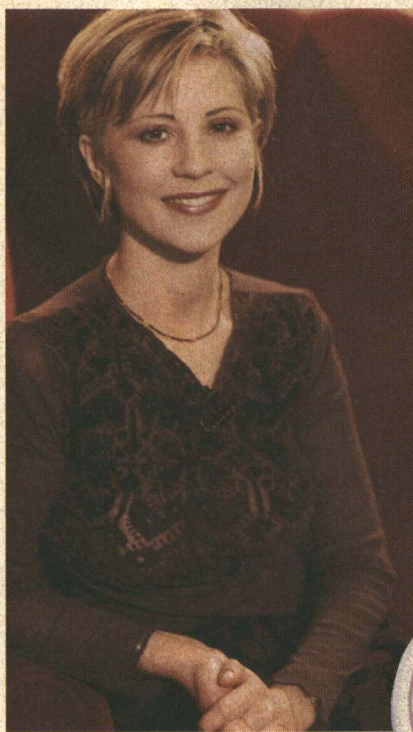

A SEDUCTION school for shy Italian men was one of the more unlikely institutions visited by Swedish TV presenter Dominika during the making of Dominika's Planet 2, a travel series focusing on the world's oddities. 'It was amazing,' she says. 'It was run by a former Mr Italy, who used a dummy of a nude woman to teach the men how to pick up women in bars.' Apparently, they had to practise grabbing the dummy's breasts from behind, which the instructor considers a foolproof wooing technique. When she is not travelling the world, Dominika, 26, is the presenter of one of Swedish television's most popular programmes, Genom Nyckelhalet, which translates more or less exactly as Through the Keyhole. When she is travelling, she always wears stilettoes and a Wonderbra, which she says are an invaluable aid to hitchhiking. Travel, from Tuesday 2nd, 9.00pm

JULIA CARLING is too embarrassed to have a manicure because her fingernails are 'terrible' and she doesn't wash her hair every day 'because it behaves better when it's a bit dirty'. These are two of the more surprising beauty secrets of the presenter of The Zest Beauty Show, who also confesses she couldn't live without Elizabeth Arden's eight-hour cream, considers a massage the perfect stress reliever, and needs a minimum eight hours sleep every night to look her best. Sponsored by the glossy fitness magazine Zest, The Zest Beauty Show delves into the make-up bags and bathroom cabinets of the rich and famous, including past and present it-girls Dame Barbara Cartland and Tara Palmer-Tomkinson. Granada Breeze, from Tuesday 2nd, 1.30pm

A NEW light-hearted six-part documentary series promises to shed light on the way our European partners live. Bloody Foreigners! examines the lifestyles of the Germans, French, Spanish, Italians and Swedes, before turning its attention on the British, with a feature on the decline of fish and chips, which have been usurped by curry as the nation's favourite dish. Most of the series will also focus on sex. The edition on France is particularly titillating, investigating the accuracy of the old adage that the French are the world's greatest lovers. Sky One, from Sunday 28th, 10.00pm

FOR those still lamenting the passing of This Life, the serial about a group of (highly sexed) friends sharing a house, some comfort can be taken from its cable premiere. Meanwhile, the actors who made their names in the show have prospered (see feature, pages 16 and 17), and Amita Dhiri, who played the control freak Milly, has even had a baby. Of her This Life colleagues, Dhiri says that the actor most like his character was Andrew Lincoln, who played Milly's boyfriend Egg. 'But Daniela Nardini would hate me to say that she was like her character, Anna, because she was always really worried that everyone would think she was a slut,' she says. As for her own character, Dhiri reports that Milly's sexual frolics did not go down too well with her husband Bradley. 'We tried not to discuss it,' she says. 'Also, I was concerned that my father, who's an accountant, might get some stick from his clients. "Saw your daughter with her kit off last night" – that sort of thing.' UK Gold, starts Tuesday 2nd, 9.40pm

THE third series of American Classic, a witty and irreverent look at American music, was actually filmed in London. Host John Fugelsang visited sites that have become legendary in pop and rock history, such as the Abbey Road studios and, just down the road, Marylebone Register Office, where Paul McCartney married Linda, Ringo Starr married Barbara Bach, and where Patsy Kensit tied the knot twice. Fugelsang, a comedian well-known in America, engages in some mischief in the series. He wanders around London spreading rumours about pop stars – reporting a vicious fight, for instance, between Elton John and Posh Spice. Some punters believe him but many are sceptical. 'The British are not as gullible as the Americans,' says Fugelsang. VH1, from Sunday 7th, 9.00pm

MADONNA is a woman used to dominating newspaper headlines and causing a stir in whatever she does. Whether it is for wearing her underwear as an outfit or shocking the public with her book Sex, she is the self-appointed queen of publicity. And the material girl is certainly happy to talk about her greatest accomplishment – the role of Evita, which earned her rave reviews and a Golden Globe award in 1996, when Time magazine celebrated her as a ‘magnet for all eyes’.

As Eva Perón, Argentina’s most loved and hated first lady, Madonna got to combine her acting and singing talents and prove herself worthy of beating such competition as Barbra Streisand and Meryl Streep, who had also been considered for the role.

In the flesh, Madonna looks sensational. Her skin is alabaster-white, flawless and immaculately made-up, and her hair is modest and unfussed.

‘Playing Eva was a dream come true. I understood her passion, and there were a lot of things in her life that I could so closely relate to,’ she says.

‘It felt like destiny. But as well as feeling lucky, I also felt exhausted, nervous, scared and frustrated.’

It is hardly surprising considering the baggage that came with the role. Not only was Madonna stepping into the shoes of one of the most controversial women in history, but she was also doing it in a film in which every line is sung, not spoken.

‘A lot of times I felt like things were really connecting, but there were other times when I’d think, “What are we doing? What is this? It’s not an opera, not a musical, it’s not even a regular movie. It’s just insane.”’ She shakes her head and grins.

She discovered she was a few weeks pregnant with her daughter Lourdes, now 18 months old, when the movie started filming in Buenos Aires and she admits she was physically and mentally drained by the end: ‘We flew halfway around the world to endure blistering heat and bone-chilling cold, and worked in countries where we were not welcome, where slogans were painted on walls telling us to get out. We annoyed presidents and bishops.’

‘Everyone wondered if there was ever going to be an end to it and at times we all wanted to quit.’

But she shows her legendary self-confidence when she asserts: ‘But I can say that after going through it all, from trying to sing a whole new way, to learning how to tango, to meeting presidents and bishops and every other detail, I’m sure no one else could have handled the role. Evita was the first movie big enough to contain me. I know I have a very big presence and if I overpower the movie, it fails.’

The film of the Lloyd Webber musical, which uses a phenomenal 40,000 extras, was directed by Alan Parker and chronicles the brief, dynamic life of a girl who rose from the slums to become one of the most powerful women in the world.

Born the illegitimate daughter of a domestic servant, Maria Eva Ibarguren went on to marry Argentina’s future president, dictator Juan Perón (Jonathan Pryce), only to die from cancer in 1952, aged 33.

Madonna says she closely identified with her character and welcomes parallels: ‘She came from a small town and left to go to the big city when she was a teenager. She didn’t know anyone and didn’t have any formal training, but managed to make something incredible of her life. She realised her dream and found her way into entertainment and later into politics – I can relate to that. I understand her commitment, discipline and ambition.’

Like Eva, Madonna has been a controversial figure and has often angered critics with her behaviour. She certainly has a scary side and when asked a question

‘Evita was the first movie big enough to contain me’

Modest? Maybe not. But could anyone other than Madonna have played Argentina’s legendary heroine? Words: Jane Oddy that she deems inappropriate or too personal, her face closes up and her pale blue eyes look steely. Yet she can also appear girlish and even looks vulnerable when asked how she deals with the avalanche of negative stories about her.

‘Sure it hurts,’ she says with a resigned shrug. ‘I think the biggest misconception about me is that people think I’m not human, that I don’t have any feelings. Of course that’s not true.’

How does she cope? ‘I try and have a sense of humour about the way the media depicts me and surround myself with good friends and family, people who I trust. It helps me stay sane,’ she replies.

In the past Madonna courted publicity, but now she is a mother she prefers a more low-key lifestyle away from the cameras. Separated from Lourdes’s father, her former personal trainer Carlos Leon, she has custody over her daughter and lives in New York.

While her music has been consistently successful – her recent single Frozen reached number one and her new album Ray of Light is a hit – her film career, which includes flops such as Shanghai Surprise and Who’s That Girl?, has been patchy, to say the least. One of the reasons Evita was successful was that Madonna almost became the part: ‘Eva was a young girl from nowhere who had to struggle and I sympathise with that. Everything in her life was held against her or blown out of proportion.’

‘Alan, as he did his research, was just as keen as I was to portray Eva as a human being. I don’t think he saw her as a saint or sinner and neither did I.’

Discovering she was pregnant while working on the film gave her an escape from the pressures: ‘Knowing that there was a life growing inside of me gave me strength and serenity,’ she says.

‘Both of my babies have been born now and it’s an incredible feeling.’

Is this the new Maradona?

ARGENTINA are hoping Ariel Ortega lives up to comparisons with former star Diego Maradona, who almost single-handedly won the World Cup for his side in 1986. The dynamic 24-year-old midfielder, who plays his club football for Valencia in Spain, should ensure that Brazil aren't the only South American threat in France.

NUTS ABOUT BRAZIL!

Who can stop the boys from Brazil? And what are the prospects for England and Scotland? EDDIE EDSON asks the experts

Terry Butcher
Raith Rovers coach, played for England in the 1982, 1986 and 1990 World Cup finals

How will England do?

They could go all the way, they could go out in the first round. I'm not over-optimistic. I think a quarter-final place would be realistic.

How will Scotland do?

They'll fail again to get to the second round, I'm afraid to say. My heart says yes but my head says no. They'll lose to Brazil.

Which country will win the World Cup?

Brazil – not just for their individual players but for their general play as well. They're skilful, they're confident and tougher than people think. I think France will get to the final, too, playing on home soil. Final prediction:

Brazil 2 France 1.

Any dark horses?

Nigeria might surprise a few people and Spain have a strong team at the moment.

Star players?

Alessandro Del Piero should do well. In every tournament a new player comes through who no one outside their country has heard of – let's hope it's Michael Owen this time.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

England beating France 3-1 in our first game of the 1982 World Cup. Bryan Robson scored the tournament's quickest goal.

Johnny Rep
Eurosport pundit and World Cup finalist with Holland in the 1974 and 1978 World Cup finals

How will England do?

They will be difficult to beat. They played well in their group with Italy.

How will Scotland do?

They won't get into the second round. Their national league isn't very good.

Which country will win the World Cup?

Brazil, with France close behind.

Any dark horses?

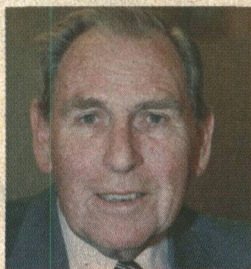

Holland! They have many good players. If only their fighting spirit was as strong.

Star players?

Can't tell you until the tournament has started.

World Cup memory?

Holland v Brazil in the semi-final of the World Cup in 1974.

Kenneth Wolstenholme
World Cup 1966 commentator. Now with 'Gazzetta Football Italia'

How will England do?

Getting to a quarter-final would be an achievement.

How will Scotland do?

Everybody reckons they'll get thrashed on the first day against Brazil, but I think they'll nick a point – the first game of the tournament tends to be a boring 0-0 draw. Craig Brown has done a tremendous job.

Which country will win the World Cup?

I can see Brazil, Germany, Italy and Spain getting to the semis, with Brazil winning through.

Any dark horses?

Nigeria and Jamaica.

Star players?

Alessandro Del Piero will be the star for me.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

Of course I've got to say the World Cup final in 1966. It would be silly saying that I wasn't chuffed by the whole thing. But if I were to disregard that, I'd go for Brazil in 1970. Their performance in the final – when they beat Italy 4-1 – was awesome.

Billy McNeill
Eurosport pundit and former Scotland international

How will England do?

You can never write England off in the World Cup – when they qualify they usually perform well.

How will Scotland do?

Brazil will qualify from this group, but whether Scotland can go with them is a difficult question. Norway are one of the best sides in Europe and Morocco are unknown quantities. In the past Scotland have been over-complacent – there is little danger of this happening under Craig Brown.

Which country will win the World Cup?

Brazil. So many of their players are playing in Europe now, and have added strength to their traditional flair.

Any dark horses?

The Nigerians have got a lot of good players who are playing top level European football and will be difficult to beat.

Star players?

Ronaldo and Del Piero.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

Brazil v England in Mexico, 1970. Bobby Moore was one of the best players of his generation and Pele was the best.

Bryan Robson
Middlesbrough manager, Eurosport pundit and former England captain

How will England do?

If England manage to put out a full side, they must have a great chance of winning the tournament.

How will Scotland do?

They are in a tough group. Scotland have never performed well in the World Cup before – they have good players but can be a bit dour.

Which country will win the World Cup?

Brazil are favourites, but if you come from one continent to another, it's not always easy to adjust. The Germans and Italians have good sides and great World Cup pedigrees.

Any dark horses?

I have heard very good things from trusted sources about the Colombians; they could surprise a few people.

Star players?

The Brazilians will dazzle with players like Ronaldo and Roberto Carlos. The German lad Andreas Moeller looks a good player.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

Easy, the World Cup final in 1966. It had everything. It was an exciting game with twists and turns, late goals and plenty of them.

Trevor Steven
Eurosport pundit who appeared for England in the 1986 World Cup finals

How will England do?

It's a tough old group. England are in and a lot depends on their first game. If they lose that, I think they will find life hard going. But I fancy them to get to the quarter-finals. We've got good enough players – the likes of Shearer, Seaman and Adams – to go the whole way.

How will Scotland do?

Again it's a tough group, and again the first match is crucial. If they can nick a point against Brazil, they should get through to the second round. If they lose, they'll need a bit of fortune to progress.

Which country will win the World Cup?

I can't see past Brazil. But you never can bet against Germany.

I think France and England could well make up the other semi-finalists.

Any dark horses?

Croatia look good bets, and Chile showed England what they're made of when they beat them 2-0 in the friendly at Wembley.

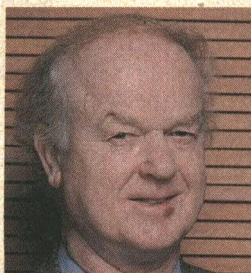

Star players?

Ronaldo is an excellent player who shows flashes of brilliance even when he's not playing well – the mark of a great player.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

It's got to be the England-Poland match in 1986, which I played in. We'd had a terrible start to the tournament and had to win to get to the next round.

Gary Lineker scored a hat-trick and it was the turning point of our tournament.

Archie MacPherson
Eurosport commentator

How will England do?

If the faith healer's off form, maybe only the quarter-finals. Otherwise the semis.

How will Scotland do?

The crucial match is the second game against Norway. They haven't got much chance against Brazil, because the Brazilians have received some criticism and will be firing on all cylinders. Unfortunately, when Brazil play Norway in the last match of the group, they might have already qualified and could step down a gear.

Which country will win the World Cup?

My gut feeling is Italy, whose bad patch is well behind them now. I'd like to see an Italy-Holland final.

Any dark horses?

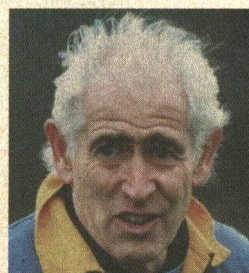

Spain are playing very well – they had the best qualifying record of everybody bar Romania.

Star players?

Ronaldo – it's a great stage for him to do rather brilliantly. Shearer will score goals if he's fit.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

Archie Gemmill scoring against Holland in 1978 was a thrilling moment for all Scots. Being less partisan, Romania against Argentina in the last World Cup was a stunning exhibition of fluid football.

Peter Bonetti
Represented
England in the 1966 and 1970
World Cup finals

How will England do?

I've got great belief in Glenn Hoddle and his squad. With a slice of the luck you need to win any competition, they could go all the way.

How will Scotland do?

Scotland never do well in World Cup finals, though they often qualify. They won't do as well as England.

Which country will win the World Cup?

I'm a Brazil man, I love the soccer they play. European teams traditionally do well in Europe, though, so you can't rule out France. Or England, of course.

Any dark horses?

Don't discount the teams that have done well in their qualifying groups.

Star players?

Alan Shearer is bound to get a goal or two, and Michael Owen looks like he's going to stand out. He's so quick and every time he gets the ball it looks like something is going to happen.

What's your fondest World Cup memory?

The 1966 World Cup final, of course. I was on the bench with the rest of the squad – and it was a classic moment for England the team and England the country.

SIX TO FOLLOW

France 98 will be a showcase for the finest footballers in the world. We asked six top players to assess their own country's chances of success

JAMAICA

Wimbledon striker Marcus Gayle is backing the Reggae Boyz to cause an upset in France

'Every game is a carnival when we play, but people shouldn't think we are just playing for a laugh. We're not going to France to lose. I expect us to get through the first stage. And from then on it's down to the draw. But we won't go into the finals fearing anyone. We showed that by drawing with Brazil recently. I think we can finish second in our group.'

ARGENTINA

Fiorentina star Gabriel Batistuta has high hopes for himself and Argentina at France 98

'My big ambition is to be the top scorer in the World Cup finals. I had the same hope in the United States four years ago but we went out of the tournament too early. Now I think we have a better chance this time. We will start with Japan and Jamaica in our group and once those are out of the way, I think we will become one of the main forces.'

FRANCE

Frank Leboeuf, Chelsea's stylish French centre-half, is tipping Juventus's Zidane to be the star of the World Cup this summer

'Every World Cup throws up a great star and I think this year it could be our Zinedine Zidane. He has the right temperament and the ability. But you have to be part of a team that is successful, and I think we have a great chance of winning because we are at home. There will be a lot of expectation from fans, which can make it hard. But I have a feeling we will do well.'

BRAZIL

Real Madrid defender Roberto Carlos is ready to take the World Cup finals by storm with his famous bending free kicks

'I always practise free-kicks every day. I prefer to kick with the outside of my foot. But there's no secret, just concentration. If they help Brazil win the World Cup I will be pleased. Everyone says we are favourites to win the tournament, but we must just play our football and try to win every game. There are other good teams in the tournament as well.'

ITALY

Chelsea star Gianfranco Zola is warning England that Italy will still be a force at the World Cup finals – despite only finishing second in their qualifying group

'It was very disappointing for us that we needed a play-off to get to the World Cup, but the important thing is that we are there. England played well in Rome to win the group, but we may yet come back to haunt them. Because I play at Chelsea and I love playing in England, I hope that England and Italy will be in the final. But I hope Italy wins.'

HOLLAND

Arsenal's Dennis Bergkamp believes he can bottle the Highbury spirit and provide some Dutch courage

'It doesn't matter how good or experienced you are if you don't all pull together. I enjoy playing so much for Arsenal because we all stick together on and off the pitch. Holland haven't had that for a long time – but that is changing. We have our old confidence back and believe in ourselves again.

I think we had forgotten how good we could be after Euro 96. Now that we remember, there is a real feeling that we can do very well in France.'

IF ENGLAND are to win the World Cup this summer, it is possible that they will have to overcome the old enemy – Germany. Since Geoff Hurst's famous hat-trick sank the Germans during the 1966 World Cup final, England have faced their nemesis three times in their subsequent four World Cup appearances – and failed to win each time.

So what will it take to beat them this time, if they meet in the quarter-finals at Lyon on 4 July? Why are Germany Europe's strongest nation, with three World Cup wins out of six finals, and two European Championship titles?

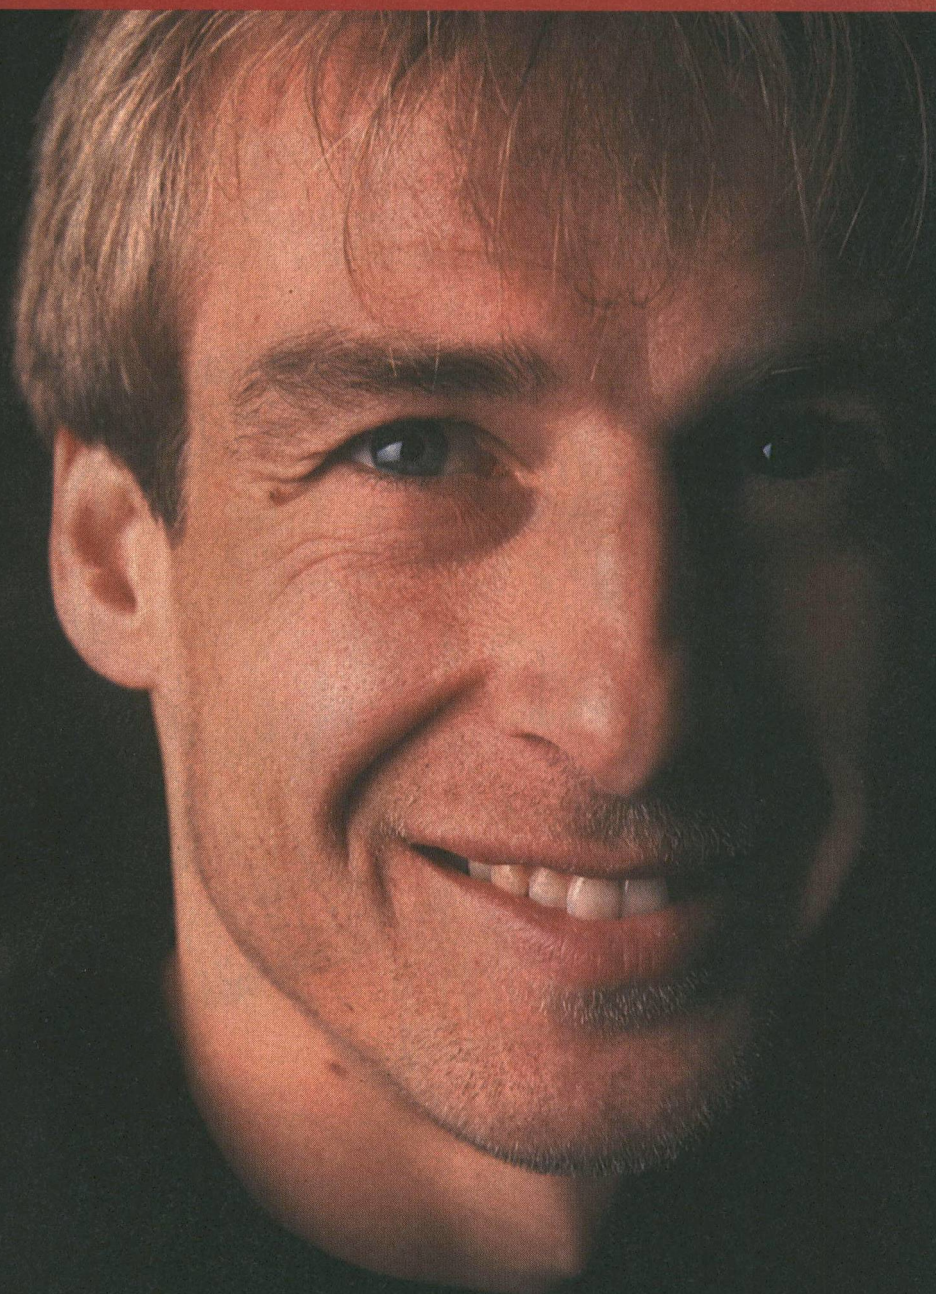

Perhaps the best man to speak on behalf of his countrymen is Jürgen Klinsmann, squad captain of the reigning European Champions and one of the world's great strikers.

As well as winning club honours with some of the best teams in the footballing world, he played in the successful 1990 World Cup-winning side and knows better than most what makes them tick.

'Ever since I was a young boy,' Jürgen explains, 'I never knew when I was beaten. You have to keep going on the football field, right until the last minute, because anything can happen. It is a mentality that I grew up with in Germany and is important if you want success. You have to be prepared to work hard, and the rewards will come.'

We all know that German planning and organisation are second to none, and nothing showed that more than the Wembley penalty shoot-out in 1996. While England's players tried their luck in an almost random order, the Germans knew exactly what they were doing, having studied and practised shoot-outs intensively.

Indeed, they have not lost a penalty shoot-out in any major competition since Czechoslovakia beat them in the 1976 European Championship final. Since

THE SECRET OF OUR SUCCESS

They have won the World Cup three times, appeared in six finals and have a great record against England. Now Jürgen Klinsmann reveals that Germany won't be repeating the mistake which cost them the World Cup in 1994.

Words: Gerry Cox

then it has been one success after another. As Klinsmann says: 'I think it's part of our mentality that when a big tournament comes up, we are able to concentrate at the right moment. History has shown that we are a good tournament side.'

Yet the striker, who has just finished his second spell at Tottenham, admits that Germany are often slow starters and only really get going in top gear when the battle hots up. 'Even in the qualifying rounds we often struggle to beat lesser countries because playing them does not have the same feeling as taking part in a big tournament.'

They were almost embarrassed by footballing minnows Northern Ireland and Albania in the qualifying stages for France 98, needing two late goals to avoid a humiliating defeat in the latter game. 'We were lucky against Albania and had a couple of other bad results,' Klinsmann reflects,

'but once we get to the finals, that's when it counts.'

He admits he is looking forward to France 98 with 'a lot of excitement and confidence' about Germany's chances, and they are sure to be leading the European challenge. 'The squad has been building up to this tournament since the 1994 World Cup, and it is mainly the same squad that we won the European Championship with two years ago.'

'More importantly,' he adds, 'the spirit is very, very good, which is the biggest difference between us now and four years ago. Our problem then was that we had a good team and were good enough to win the World Cup, but we didn't have the spirit.'

Germany were surprisingly beaten by Bulgaria in the quarter-finals in the USA, having looked like going all the way to the final. But the squad was beset by personal squabbles, as Klinsmann admits. 'We had a couple of problems between players on a personal level. It did not help at all.'

But coach Berti Vogts has now placed a greater emphasis on team morale. Klinsmann says: 'Berti definitely learned from our experiences in America and now looks closely at the character of players, at their spirit, and that's how he decides who he takes. He doesn't just look at the football ability of players, and that has worked well because our team spirit is now excellent, which is a big bonus.'

Klinsmann believes this is what will make Germany even harder to beat in France. 'All the players stick together and have a lot of respect for each other. We also have a manager who is very open minded for any discussions and wants to know what the players think, what their opinions are. It's this kind of working together that gives us such a good feeling going toward the World Cup.'

9 THE WHO

2 THE ROLLING STONES

3 JIMI HENDRIX

4 LED ZEPPELIN

Who are the greatest rock artists of all time? VH1 says it has the answer with its list of music's top 100, compiled after a survey of more than 600 musicians who have appeared on the channel. The musicians' list (see facing page) will be featured in a nine-hour show, which will include footage of all the top 100 performers, at 12noon on Saturday 6th. And you can find out who the public think are top of the pops by tuning in to a second nine-hour VH1 viewers' top 100 rundown at 12noon on Sunday 7th. Words: WARD HELLEWELL

ONLY FIVE COUNTRIES feature in the list, which is dominated by artists from the US and the UK. The other countries are Jamaica, Canada and Ireland, although these account for just five of the 100 artists (Bob Marley, Neil Young, Joni Mitchell, The Band and U2).

THE UK HAS 27 of the 100 artists; six are in the top 10.

FEMALE ARTISTS DON'T GET A LOOK-IN until position number 21 (Aretha Franklin). Of the 100, only 10 are women or bands dominated by a female (Aretha Franklin, Fleetwood Mac, Joni Mitchell, Janis Joplin, The Pretenders, Tina Turner, Carole King, Madonna, Gladys Knight & The Pips and Diana Ross & The Supremes).

SIX PEOPLE MADE IT into the list twice: Paul McCartney and John Lennon (The Beatles), Sting (The Police), Paul Simon (Simon & Garfunkel), Michael Jackson (The Jackson Five) and Eric Clapton (Cream).

THE NUMBER ONE BAND, The Beatles, is also the most popular band in British music history, having had a record 17 number one hits (the same as 'The King', Elvis Presley).

OF THE TOP TEN, four artists have never had number one singles in Britain. James Brown made it to number five, Bob Dylan managed number four and The Who made it to number two. Led Zeppelin never released a single in the UK. However, the band did have eight consecutive number one albums here.

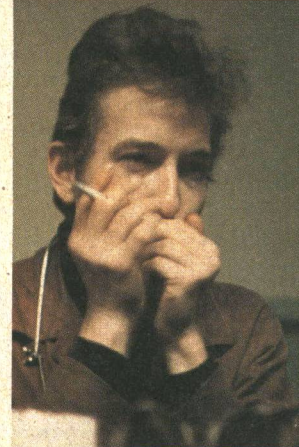

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE

COLOUR? Pink Floyd, Al Green, James Brown and Cream all made it into the list. Simply Red, Yello, Blue Pearl, Orange Juice, Black Sabbath, Deep Purple, Silver Convention and Barry White did not.

SOME OTHER NAMES that didn't make it: Abba, The B-52's, Joan Baez, George Benson, Blondie, Bon Jovi, Boy George, Kate Bush, Cher, Phil Collins, The Cure, Dire Straits, The Doobie Brothers, Duran Duran, Electric Light Orchestra, Eurythmics, Marianne Faithfull, Bryan Ferry, Guns N' Roses, Happy Mondays, Bill Haley, The Hollies, The Human League, Billy Idol, Inxs, Iron Maiden, The Jam, Jefferson Airplane, Jethro Tull, Grace Jones, Tom Jones, Joy Division, Judas Priest, Kraftwerk, Cyndi Lauper, Annie Lennox, Madness, The Mamas & the Papas, Barry Manilow, Meat Loaf, The Monkees, Sinéad O'Connor, Oasis, The Pet Shop Boys, Pulp, Suzi Quatro, Lou Reed, Cliff Richard, Lionel Richie, Sade, Carly Simon, Siouxsie & The Banshees, Slade, Patti Smith, The Smiths, The Spice Girls, Dusty Springfield, Ringo Starr, Status Quo, Cat Stevens, Stone Roses, The Stranglers, Style Council, Donna Summer, Thin Lizzy, Suzanne Vega, Village People, ZZ Top.

SEVERAL OF THE STARS on the list have made records with other artists in the top 100, including Marvin Gaye and Diana Ross (Stop Look Listen), Diana Ross and Michael Jackson (Ease on Down the Road), Michael Jackson and Paul McCartney (The Girl Is Mine and Say, Say, Say), Paul McCartney and Stevie Wonder (Ebony and Ivory), Mick Jagger and David Bowie (Dancing in the Street), David Bowie and Queen (Under Pressure), Rod Stewart and Tina Turner (It Takes Two), Tina Turner and Eric Clapton (Tearing Us Apart), Eric Clapton and Elton John (Runaway Train), Eric Clapton and Sting (It's Probably Me), and Elton John and Aretha Franklin (Through the Storm).

5 BOB DYLAN

6 JAMES BROWN

7 DAVID BOWIE

Long live the rock legends!

Some top 100 stars who are no longer rocking: Otis Redding (died 1967, plane crash), John Lennon (1980, murdered), Jimi Hendrix (1970, choked on own vomit after drug overdose), Led Zeppelin drummer John Bonham (1980, choked on own vomit after drink binge), Rolling Stones guitarist Brian Jones (1969, drowned in swimming pool after drug and booze binge), Elvis Presley (1977, heart attack after years of over-eating and drug abuse), The Who's Keith Moon (1978, drug overdose), Beach Boys drummer Dennis Wilson (1983, drowned while swimming), Marvin Gaye (1984, shot dead by his father during an argument), The Doors' Jim Morrison (1971, heart attack), Bob Marley (1981, cancer), Queen's Freddie Mercury (1991, Aids-related illnesses), Buddy Holly (1959, plane crash), Janis Joplin (1970, heroin overdose), Nirvana's Kurt Cobain (1994, self-inflicted gunshot), Sex Pistols' Sid Vicious (1979, heroin overdose), Roy Orbison (1988, heart attack), Grateful Dead's Jerry Garcia (1995, heart attack), The Byrds singer Gene Clark (1991, natural causes), The Byrds drummer Michael Clarke (1993, liver failure), Sam Cooke (1964, shot dead by a hotel manageress after he allegedly attempted to assault her), Frank Zappa (1993, cancer), Kiss drummer Eric Carr (1991, cancer), The Pretenders guitarist James Honeyman-Scott (1982, drug addiction complications), Stevie Ray Vaughan (1990, helicopter crash), Muddy Waters (1983, heart attack), Velvet Underground singer Nico (1988, brain haemorrhage following cycling accident), Velvet Underground guitarist Sterling Morrison (1995, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma), The Band pianist and singer Richard Manuel (1986, hanged himself), T Rex's Marc Bolan (1977, car crash), Temptations singer Paul Williams (1973, self-inflicted gunshot).

Life after This Life

FANS of the hit TV series This Life were in uproar when the BBC called a halt to the cult drama after just two successful series. The lives, loves and careers of five young professional people in their twenties, sharing a house in Southwark, south east London, had become such compulsive viewing for millions of Britons over 32 episodes that they were thirsting for more. Sadly there is to be no third series. But UK Gold is screening the first This Life series and giving an eye-popping glimpse of life behind the curtains of 13 Benjamin Street, London SE1.

That's the address which became notorious in the show as the house of fun, where bed-hopping lawyers drank heavily, swore frequently, partied hard, watched loads of football on TV and indulged in plenty of casual flings.

Love, sex, ambition and more sex dominate the storylines of each eventful episode, and this mix quickly hooked millions of viewers and turned a bunch of relatively unknown actors into familiar faces and sought-after stars.

Actress Daniela Nardini, as wild child Anna, quickly became a sex symbol thanks to her spectacular legs, and Jack Davenport achieved instant heart-throb status as sex-hungry barrister Miles.

Since the BBC announced that there would not be another series, nearly all the cast have moved on to big things.

Natasha Little, 25, who plays junior lawyer Rachel, beat off stiff competition to win the plum role of Becky Sharp in Thackeray's Vanity Fair. The early 19th-century costume drama will be one of the top BBC TV series in the autumn and Natasha landed the role as a direct result of This Life.

'It was great to be in something as popular as This Life,' said Natasha on a Vanity Fair location in Brussels. 'I got lots of fan mail and it definitely got me more noticed as far as acting work is concerned. Rachel wasn't an angel in This Life and perhaps they had that in mind when it came to casting me as Becky, who is a complete minx.'

Juliet Cowan, who plays cafe co-manager Nicky, said: 'I couldn't believe the recognition I got from This Life and since then I've done radio plays and a new sitcom called Zeitgeist, playing a wild character called Bambi.'

Other members of the This Life cast have also built on the show's success.

Jack Davenport, 25, who plays the vain, arrogant, good-looking and frequently naked Miles, has been snapped up to star in a big new Channel 4 drama series called Crossing the Line, to be screened in the autumn. This new TV role sees him become a member of an elite police detective squad in a crime series with a horror twist. He also appeared in Fierce Creatures, the sequel to A Fish Called Wanda, as well as a TV production of Macbeth.

Ramon Tikaram, 31, who plays moody motorcycle courier Ferdy, is the brother of Tanita Tikaram, who had a Top Ten hit in 1988 with A Good Tradition, and he too is working hard on a music career, starring as Judas in the London production of Jesus Christ Superstar! He has also been writing and recording an album, and appeared in the Lynda La Plante TV drama Supply and Demand.

Daniela Nardini found herself with a huge fan following as fiercely ambitious Anna, a feisty beauty whose main interests appeared to be sex, drinking and chain-smoking as well as getting to the top in her career.

Since This Life, Daniela, 30, has been filming a major new Fay Weldon drama series for Channel 4 called Big Women, due to hit the screens in the autumn. Daniela will be seen as Layla, one of four women experiencing the highs and lows of life in London in the Seventies.

Andrew Lincoln, who played football fanatic Egg, went on to star in the BBC's production of The Woman in White, a Victorian ghost story. He can be seen in the 1995 film Boston Kickout, premiering on Sky Movies Screen One on Sunday 21 June at 10.00pm, in which he plays a disaffected twentysomething trying to escape from his bleak small-town existence as his three childhood friends become stuck in a downward spiral of drugs, crime and violence.

Amy Jenkins, 29, the first-time screenwriter who devised This Life, admits that she based quite a lot of the show on her own personal experiences of house-sharing in London.

She says: 'The five main characters may be lawyers and professionals but they are not afraid to swear, take drugs, have a lot of sex and watch a lot of football. They're into escaping, but they are also into finding themselves - they read self-help books, they're interested in working at relationships and a couple of them get into therapy.'

Some of the language and the amount of nudity shocked viewers when This Life hit the screen. But producer Jane Fallon says: 'The language is real and there is a lot of talk about sex because it's something people in their twenties naturally discuss. Amy's scripts don't balk at realities.'

This Life became addictive for millions of viewers, so why did it end? The answer is that the BBC failed to tie down the actors to contracts for another series. Plus the production team felt that it was so good it was best not to turn it into a soap.

Talk around the clock on Saturdays

The X-Files
Sundays 9.00pm

SINCE Cable Guide visited The X-Files set in Vancouver at the end of January, the show has been turned upside down by events. In the real world, the decision has finally been made to transfer filming of the series from Canada to Los Angeles, where the movie, which will be released in Britain on 21 August, was shot last summer. And in the fictional universe of skulduggery and conspiracy, alien visitations and monsters, something even more odd has happened.

Fox Mulder (David Duchovny) isn't a believer any more. The man who has a poster on the wall of his office at FBI Headquarters with 'I Want to Believe' written in large letters, now attends conferences attacking the testimony of people who claimed to have been abducted by UFOs. The man whose purpose in life has been to discover the truth behind the disappearance of his sister, Samantha, now distrusts his own memories of that event. And, in the biggest twist of all, his partner, the oh-so-cool and down-to-earth Dana Scully (Gillian Anderson), starts to believe in everything that she has stood against for the past five years.

It's all part of the build-up for the big screen version of the series, in which Mulder and Scully have to fight for their lives as alien plans for Earth become apparent. Both have a lot thrown at them in the fifth season of the TV show, currently screening on Sky One. Scully learns that she has a daughter, Emily, who comes to haunt her. And Mulder starts to believe the whole alien conspiracy is a cover for secret government projects that threaten the whole of the world's population.

New and old faces are appearing,

X changes

New boy Jeffrey Spender, played by Chris Owens, has some intriguing family connections that arouse Mulder and Scully's interest

As fans eagerly await the big screen version of 'The X-Files', due out later this summer, something very strange is happening to Mulder and Scully.
Patrick Holm reports and neither Mulder nor Scully can determine whose side they are really on. A fresh-faced young FBI agent, Jeffrey Spender, played by Chris Owens, makes his debut in the show on 21 June. He continually crosses Mulder and Scully's path – his mother is the so-called Patient X, who has apparently been regularly abducted, and his father is someone who is involved with whatever conspiracy is going on. Meanwhile, Alex Krycek (Nicholas Lea), the former FBI agent who is responsible for Scully's sister's death, turns up in Siberia when mysterious objects fall from the skies, and makes his way to New York in order to bargain with Mulder.

If that all sounds complicated, then everything comes to a head at the end of the season in the episode appropriately titled The End, which is set in Vancouver. As a thank you to the city for its hospitality over the past five years, the producers invited around 15,000 X-Files fans to take part as extras in a scene involving a chess match in a huge stadium – the climax of the episode. Guest star Mimi Rogers joins the cast in the final outing before the movie hits the world's cinemas.

So just what does happen in the film? Will any of the questions and conflicts of the series be resolved? No one, except the director, writer and the two stars know the whole story – the other actors were only given scripts for the scenes they were involved in – but alongside the cryptic news that 'nobody eats ratatouille in this movie', Gillian Anderson confided one item that may give hope to many of David Duchovny's fans – Mulder does not wear those infamous red Speedo trunks. In fact, he doesn't wear very much at all!

1998 MTV

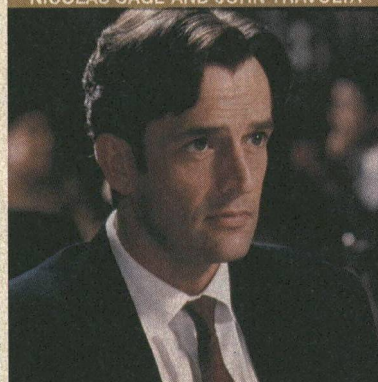

Best screen kiss, best villain and best fight are just some of the categories at the MTV Movie Awards. As Hollywood awaits the announcements with anticipation, we bring you the nominations in full

MTV

MTV Movie Awards
Saturday 6th 8.00pm

BEST MALE PERFORMANCE NOMINEES:
NICOLAS CAGE AND JOHN TRAVOLTA

BEST COMEDIC PERFORMANCE
NOMINEE: RUPERT EVERETT

BEST ON-SCREEN DUO NOMINEES:
TOMMY LEE JONES AND WILL SMITH

ANYONE needing proof that Hollywood's stars take the MTV Movie Awards seriously only needs to recall Jim Carrey's reaction after winning Best Villain at last year's event. After his name was announced, Carrey leapt from his seat and ran screaming through the auditorium with excitement. Expect a similar reaction if he wins Best Comedic Performance for Liar, Liar this year.

His reaction is not difficult to understand. The MTV Movie Awards are now in their eighth year, and increase in importance and popularity every year – fun categories such as Best Fight, Best Kiss and Best Action Sequence have played a major part in that. Equally important is the fact that it's MTV viewers who decide all of the award winners.

MTV president Judy McGrath believes this year's nominees 'reflect the passion of the young movie-going audience. From Titanic and Good Will Hunting to Austin Powers and Chasing Amy, the nominees are a window into the diverse tastes of true movie fans.'

Most eyes will be on the performance of Titanic, which swept the board at the Oscars but won nothing at the BAFTAs.

Will it sink or swim at the MTV Movie Awards? You'll have to join host Samuel L Jackson to find out.

Nicolas Uncaged

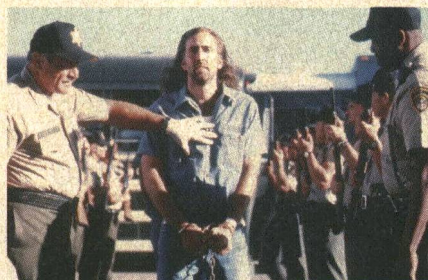

Winning a best actor
Oscar meant Nicolas
Cage was finally accepted by the Hollywood establishment but, as Garth Pearce reports,
he's still wild at heart

NICOLAS CAGE has never played by the rules. He's wrecked a luxurious caravan on a film set, smashed up a restaurant, keeps a pet octopus and has a tattoo of a lizard with a top hat on his left shoulder. At his Hollywood home, there's a human skull, christened Vincent, a preserved dead bat and two live lizards kept under glass.

And there's more. Cage, 34, first met his wife, actress Patricia Arquette, 11 years ago at Canter's Jewish Deli in Los Angeles. He proposed immediately and persuaded her to take a trip to Mexico with him. But he couldn't perform sexually because 'I was so paralysed by her beauty' and the relationship went nowhere. Three years ago they met by chance at the same deli, he proposed and she accepted. They now live, 'perfectly happily', in separate houses.

Cage's bizarre behaviour takes many forms. Our collection of meetings over the last ten years has included one in which he dressed like a tramp for afternoon tea in his five-star London hotel, just to enjoy being 'punished' by having the staff put a screen around our table. On another occasion, he turned up in an immaculate suit to a Los Angeles hamburger joint. He could never be described as dull, that's for sure.

Con Air Starts June 3rd

He's also a highly talented actor who can weave his own style into every performance. He has been in 30 movies in 16 years, and his range is enormous, if somewhat bizarre. He won a best actor Oscar for playing an alcoholic screenwriter in Leaving Las Vegas and, in one of cinema's most startling scenes, ate a live cockroach in Vampire's Kiss.

His wild man image is somewhat becalmed now, so his off-screen antics on Con Air sound rather subdued. British director Simon West relates that every couple of days his star would suddenly start howling like a dog and throw himself against a wall, clinging on like Spiderman. And producer Jerry Bruckheimer tells of him turning up one day wearing a bright orange hat, orange jumpsuit and green shoes. 'That was just the mood he was in that day,' he remarks, kindly.

Explains Cage: 'I try to do things to wake myself up every now and then. I like to think of new ways to do various scenes in the films I'm in. I don't like predictability and I don't like boring the audience. Hell, I have been bored too many times in a cinema to allow myself to do that.

'But I no longer spend so much time living and breathing my character. It was an exhausting way to work. I remember I was working with Richard Gere in The Cotton Club, when he told me: "If you keep acting like this, you'll only have three more films in you." I was ripping up my trailer, trashing my hotel room or walking on set and insulting people, so they'd hate me. It was all aimed at getting a good performance.'

In Con Air, Cage found most of his kicks in the role itself. He plays a parolee who, at one key moment in the film, is forced to nose-dive into Las Vegas on a crippled prisoner-transport plane. The spectacular stunt involved military-precision planning, particularly as the Sands Hotel, due to be demolished, was used as a target. The film crew used a C-123 plane, gutted it to reduce the weight by about 25 per cent, and set it up on a six-foot ramp. It was then fired with explosions across a distance of 100 yards, to hurtle into parked cars and the Sands Hotel itself. The cost of that stunt alone reached half-a-million dollars.

'I wasn't in the plane of course, but just had to watch what happened,' says Nicolas. 'If you can't get excited about such events, then don't come in to the movie business. What we are recreating is not real, but it has to look real. Everyone working on a film set helps to make that happen. It is something that I've not always appreciated.'

Nicolas has other reasons to have fond memories of Con Air: 'In my contract there was a clause that, if I won the Oscar that year, I'd get another $250,000 bonus. But I spent the money before I'd got it. Patricia had borrowed jewels worth $250,000 to wear at the Academy Awards ceremony and I said: "If I win tonight, then the jewels are yours."'

Their curious relationship, with its eight-year gap, now has further complications. Nicolas has a son, Weston, aged eight, with model Kristina Fulton; and Patricia has a son, Enzo, aged nine, by former husband Paul Rossi. But the children were not at their wedding, held in the pretty town of Carmel, California, 300 miles north of their home in Los Angeles. Patricia arrived for the ceremony wearing a black vinyl suit and carrying a cake decorated with purple icing, which is Cage's favourite colour. Not for the first time – and almost certainly not for the last – they surprised friends.

Yet Cage readily admits it could all have been so different for him, both personally and professionally. He's a nephew of famed director Francis Ford Coppola – Cage's real name is Coppola – and only a family link saved him from being dumped 12 years ago during the making of Peggy Sue Got Married. Co-star Kathleen Turner objected to his performance and he confesses: 'I don't really blame her. My character was supposed to be romantic and I turned him into a cross between a nutty professor and Jerry Lewis. Kathleen gave me the ice treatment but Francis stuck with me.'

He pauses to reflect, fixing those lazy blue eyes on some imagined horizon: 'A lot of people, including my own wife, have had their doubts about me,' he says. 'But, in the end, I think I've managed to win most of them around.'

Batman & Robin (Sky PG)

The caped crusader is back for his most outrageous adventure so far, facing the combined forces of arch-enemies Mr Freeze and Poison Ivy. Helping out on the side of niceness, though, are Robin and Batgirl. Stars George Clooney, Chris O'Donnell, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Uma Thurman, Alicia Silverstone. Directed by Joel Schumacher.

Con Air (Sky 18, L, V)

Buckle up for the flight of your life in this high octane blockbuster. When paroled prisoner Cameron Poe (Nicolas Cage) hitches a ride on prison transport Con Air, he little realises that it's a one way ticket to disaster. Also starring: John Cusack, John Malkovich. Directed by Simon West.

Marvin's Room (Sky 12, L, V, M)

Meryl Streep teams up with Titanic heart-throb Leonardo DiCaprio for this heartbreaking comedy-drama about a broken family. When two estranged sisters are reunited after 20 years, there is both heartache and happiness in store. Also starring: Diane Keaton, Robert De Niro, Hume Cronyn. Directed by Jerry Zaks.

Absolute Power (Sky 15, L, V)

Clint Eastwood directs and stars in this thrilling tale of White House scandal. In the middle of his final heist, a master thief witnesses a brutal murder at the home of Washington's leading powerbroker. The web of deceit leads all the way to the President. Also starring: Gene Hackman, Ed Harris, Judy Davis, Scott Glenn.

Honey, We Shrunk Ourselves (Sky PG)

Zany inventor Wayne Szalinski is back in this family comedy with more madness and mayhem – this time he shrinks himself and his wife. Starring Rick Moranis, Bug Hall, Allison Mack, Robin Bartlett, Stuart Pankin, Jake Richardson. Directed by Dean Cundey.

Everyone Says I Love You (Sky 12, L)

Woody Allen's version of the Hollywood musical gives some of America's best-known actors the chance to show off their singing skills. A witty, romantic, feel-good film. Starring Woody Allen, Goldie Hawn, Julia Roberts, Alan Alda, Drew Barrymore. Directed by Woody Allen.

Ghosts from the Past (Sky 15, V)

A crusading lawyer decides it's time to find the person who murdered a civil rights leader 30 years earlier in this powerful thriller. James Woods stars as the white supremacist who was the prime suspect in the case; Alec Baldwin is the assistant DA who vows to bring him to justice. Also starring Whoopi Goldberg, Craig T Nelson, William H Macy. Directed by Rob Reiner.

The Saint (Sky 12, L, V)

Val Kilmer stars in this gripping movie version of the classic Sixties TV series. Also starring Elisabeth Shue, Rade Serbedzija. Directed by Phillip Noyce.

Gridlock'd (Sky 18, L, V)

One of the last movies that controversial rapper Tupac Shakur made before his violent death last year, this is a smart comedy-drama about a pair of drug addicts who decide to go straight – with unexpected consequences. Also starring: Tim Roth, Thandie Newton. Directed by Vondie Curtis Hall.

Liar, Liar (Sky 12, L)

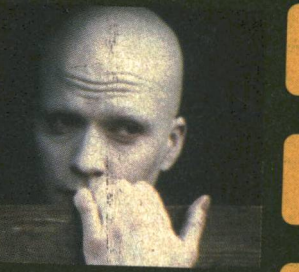

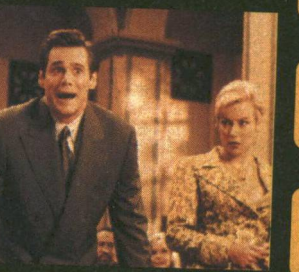

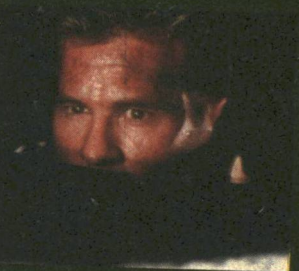

Jim Carrey stars in this comedy farce as a lawyer with a serious problem – he has to tell the truth! It may only be for 24 hours, but that's more than enough time to cause hysterical chaos. Also starring: Maura Tierney, Justin Cooper. Directed by Tom Shadyac.

Powder (Sky 12, L)

Sean Patrick Flanery stars as Powder, a young albino boy who has to brave the world when his grandparents die. He encounters ignorance and rejection, but his extraordinary talents win him friends and a sympathetic teacher helps him to come to terms with life in a cruel world. Also starring: Mary Steenburgen, Jeff Goldblum. Directed by Victor Salva.

Scream (Sky 18, L, V)

Horror maestro Wes Craven brings his own brand of tongue-in-cheek terror to this tale of a psychopathic killer who's targeting high school students. To make matters worse, the killer has a seemingly endless knowledge of horror movie trivia. Stars Neve Campbell, Skeet Ulrich, Courteney Cox. Directed by Wes Craven.

SCREEN TRENDS

In Hollywood, a sordid fling can mean big bucks.
IVAN WATERMAN tracks down the girls and boys getting up to hanky panky in June ...

THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY

Clint Eastwood chanced his arm in this Sixties-set romantic fable as a man alone with his camera who descends on an Iowa backwater to capture the area's unique covered bridges for National Geographic magazine. A lost soul in every sense, he stops for directions at the home of Francesca Johnson (Meryl Streep), whose husband has gone off to the Illinois State Fair for four days with their children. Before you can say Fuji, the lonely, frustrated Meryl makes his day.
SKY MOVIES SCREEN 1 SUNDAY 7TH

A MODERN AFFAIR

Now this is topical, a romantic comedy about a lass whose biological clock is cranking away, so she decides to do something about it. Bright single spark Grace Rhodes, played by Lisa Eichhorn, finds Mr Right through her friendly neighbourhood sperm bank. Enter womanising photographer Peter Kessler (Stanley Tucci), who simply can't keep his hands off married women. Grace does OK until she sets about tracking down the 'donor' who's going to make her a mum. One for the girls.
SKY MOVIES SCREEN 2 TUESDAY 2ND

CASINO

Duplicity with a capital D as Sharon Stone, minus her ice pick, does the dirty deed with her backstreet pimp Lester (James Woods) and psycho killer Nicky Santoro (Joe Pesci) in Martin Scorsese's bloodcurdling study of ruthless mobsters ruling the roost in Las Vegas. For once, it's Robert De Niro suffering, as a casino boss and devoted husband who has trouble keeping tabs on his junkie wife. Absolutely not for the faint-hearted. Famed more for what Mr Pesci can imaginatively do with either a common Biro pen or a workman's vice to any poor soul crossing his path. Yuk! Scorsese is completely OTT.
SKY MOVIES SCREEN 2 WEDNESDAY 24TH

I LOVE YOU TO DEATH

Fresh from picking up an Oscar as the ludicrous multi-lingual jewel thief Otto in A Fish Called Wanda, Kevin Kline retained at least his more lecherous Italian instincts for his next movie, director Lawrence Kasdan's lofty Latin farce. He cheats and cheats again on his dull, homebody housewife Rosalie, played by Tracey Ullman, who decides to bump him off when she finally realises why he's so exhausted by the time he hits the sack with her. Tracey, as you'd expect, pastas Kevin into oblivion in the comedy stakes. Watch out for Keanu Reeves and the late River Phoenix in cameos.
SKY MOVIES GOLD WEDNESDAY 10TH

ANGELS AND INSECTS

Patsy Kensit's popularity has often been in inverse proportion to the quality of her films, but she picked a winner here with this period drama. She stars as Eugenia, daughter of the Reverend Alabaster (Jeremy Kemp), who is funding the research of a naturalist, William Adamson (Mark Rylance). But it's not long before Patsy's distracting him from his studies of the local insect population and they're getting married. Then a family secret comes along that will shatter their idyllic life forever. Creepy stuff, and that's not just the insects.

KATE THORNTON

What's your favourite movie? Saturday Night Fever, because you can tell by the way he uses his walk that Travolta's a woman's man - no time to talk. Who's your favourite actor? Brad Pitt. Who's your favourite actress? Meg Ryan - funny, funny, funny. What is your first movie memory? The Blue Bird with Liz Taylor, and all the old Fred and Ginger black and whites. I loved their moves. What's your favourite movie memory? Richard Gere carrying Debra Winger out of her factory in An Officer and a Gentleman. What is the most scary moment you've seen in a film? Camcorder footage of my 'girls only' holiday in Ibiza last year. What's your favourite comedy? The Fully Monty - it's the very best of British. What's your favourite horror film? I hate horror films. I haven't got the stomach for them. What's your favourite sci-fi film? Cocoon - it's so lovely. Very touching. What's your favourite weepie? Beaches. It always makes me bawl. What's your favourite movie quote? Meg Ryan in Top Gun: 'Goose, you big stud. Take me to bed or lose me forever!' Kate Thornton co-hosts Hit for Six, weekdays at 6.00pm on VH1

THAT OLD BLACK MAGIC

PLAYING with the occult spells danger for four teenage girls when they set up their own Los Angeles coven in The Craft. Robin Tunney, Fairuza Balk, Neve Campbell and Rachel True (pictured above) star in a supernatural thriller about four alienated girls who quickly become bewitched, bothered and bewildered when they experiment with black magic. Spooky stuff!

BOUNCING BACK?

ALEC STEWART and England will be looking to make up for last winter's Test series defeat against the West Indies when the first Test starts against South Africa. But the Springboks' chief fast bowlers, Allan Donald and Shaun Pollock, are both back on familiar territory at Edgbaston, so it's debatable who'll have the greater home advantage.

NEW SERIES Psi FACTOR: CHRONICLES OF THE PARANORMAL

Dan Aykroyd hosts Psi Factor

Enter the unknown with the Sci-Fi Channel's action-packed paranormal adventure series, starring Matt (Max Headroom) Frewer as criminologist Matt Praeger, leader of the O.S.I.R. (Office of Scientific Investigation and Research) team formed to explore the bizarre and downright dangerous. Each 60-minute episode delves into a fascinating real-life file, unearthing strange creatures, supernatural incidents, UFOs or anything beyond the accepted realms of reality. Hosted by paranormal enthusiast and Hollywood star Dan Aykroyd, Psi Factor materialises exclusively on the Sci-Fi Channel every weekday at 9.00pm.

	CABLE CHOICE SPORT England - Ready or Not Sky Sports 1 10.30pm You can't ignore the World Cup and, after showing England's warm-up games and qualifiers, Sky Sports is ideally placed to assess Glenn Hoddle and his side's chances for France 98. For two hours tonight (yes, a full match plus extra time), a whole gaggle of football experts and opinion formers will be discussing the merits of the squad for France and compare it to England teams of past generations, including the class of 1966, who won the trophy under Sir Alf Ramsey. 	CABLE CHOICE SPORT French Open - LIVE Eurosport 11.00am, 4.00pm Will it be another Spaniard or will an American surprise us at this year's French Open tennis tournament? These clay court championships usually throw up a specialist winner like Brazil's Gustavo Kuerten, who came from nowhere to win last year. However, recent world number one Marcelo Rios will be thereabouts in the men's event if fit, while all the women will be looking to avoid the versatile Williams sisters, Venus and Serena. It's the quarter-finals today, with coverage continuing through to the finals at the weekend.			TELEVISION X	ADULT CHANNEL	HVC

CABLE CHOICE SPORT International Rugby Union - LIVE Sky Sports 1 2.00pm Full coverage of the second match of Ireland's rigorous tour of the home of the world champions of rugby union, South Africa. Today they take on South West District and, if the performance of South African clubs in the Super 12s is anything to go by, this is not a simple warm-up for the Irish - it's likely to be a fight for their lives and their reputations. Still, the men in green will be sure to put out their strongest squad and go for a win to build confidence for the gruelling challenges which lie ahead. The young person's guide to what's on.

Words: MARTIN PHILP

GET IT RIGHT

Got a problem? The Right Approach may have the answer. The new show takes a light-hearted look at teen conflicts and dilemmas and offers advice on how to solve all sorts of hassles. Teenage actors will act out a short scene, and experts – including Trouble's own Ortis and Lucie – will suggest ways of dealing with the problem. And Big Ted will bring you the best advice from teenage magazine agony aunts and uncles. So, if you're fed up with your boyfriend's obsession with All Saints, you're tired of your Dad trying to be cool, or you've had enough of your best friend flirting with your boyfriend, tune in. You'll definitely have a laugh.

Family fortunes

Microscopic mishaps aren't the only problem facing the Szalinski family in Honey, I Shrunk the Kids. The TV show, based on the film, follows the escapades of inventor Wayne Szalinski, his wife Diane and their kids, Amy and Nick. Brain swapping, time travel, cloning and being made invisible are part of everyday life for the family – and it's all made possible by the visual effects team at Disney's studios in Los Angeles. The show's visual effects producer, Cathy Frank, says each episode of Honey, I Shrunk the Kids has between 50 and 100 effects. They're created using the latest computer technology and added after the show is filmed. Cathy says the show's writers have come up with some crazy ideas, but none have proved impossible for the visual effects team. 'One of the weirdest things we had to do was turn Wayne's boss into a giant bug,' she says. 'Plus, we've had to create killer teddy bears, garbage eating protozoa and leprechauns, so there's always something different. It's such a fun show to work on.'

THE FRESH PRINCE OF BEL AIR

MEN IN BLACK

WHERE THERE'S A WILL ...

A fresh-faced Will Smith stars in The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, starting on Trouble this month. Will was just 22 when the show started in 1990, but he was already well on the way to stardom. In 1988, he won a Grammy Award for best rap performance with DJ Jazzy Jeff, and his role in Fresh Prince lasted until 1996. Since then he's become one of Hollywood's big stars with roles in Men in Black and Independence Day. In The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, Will's mother sends him from Philadelphia to California to live with his rich uncle and his family, hoping some of their 'good old-fashioned values' will rub on off him. But nothing is ever that easy ...

Roommates
Sky Movies Screen 2 8.00pm
When granddaddy Peter Falk adopts his six-year-old grandson, the rest of the family takes a dim view. Things are even trickier when Falk is 100 and his grandson is a medical intern. They decide to live together again, but the old man now has a girlfriend and roommates to cope with.

GENERAL

Butterflies
UK Gold 8.20pm
With Wendy Craig in the starring role, this gentle family comedy has stood the test of time because of its quirky characters in whom we all see a little of ourselves. Geoffrey Palmer and Nicholas Lyndhurst are part of the dysfunctional group given life by writer Carla Lane.

HARRY'S GAME

THE ODDS are stacked against Harry Collins (Ray Liotta) in the premiere of Phoenix. He's offered an unusual way of settling his large gambling debt – committing a murder – but things are complicated by the fact that he's also a police officer. Tough choice? You bet!

LET BATTLE COMMENCE!

THE DAY we've all been waiting for is at hand. The 16th World Cup finals, from France, start with a fascinating match in the Stade de France: defending champions Brazil against Scotland. Ronaldo, arguably the finest centre forward in the world, and his colleagues will be hoping to triumph over Kevin Gallacher and the Tartan Army. For many, it's not a question of sport but a question of how many goals Brazil will score. Scotland, though, have a fine tradition of competing honourably against the footballing giants – it's just the minnows like Costa Rica they have a problem with. The opening game in the finals is often a tense, low-scoring encounter, so don't expect a goal-scoring feast. You can, however, expect passion, skill and 110 per cent commitment from both sides. And, who knows, maybe one of the biggest surprises in the history of the World Cup?

Crossfire

Sky Movies Gold 11.00am

The first of four films featuring this week's Saturday Superstar, Robert Ryan. In the Forties and Fifties, he was a kind of poor man's Jimmy Stewart and this opener starts with an action thriller in which an insane ex-soldier goes on a killing spree. Also starring Robert Mitchum.

GENERAL

MTV Movie Awards 1998

MTV 8.00pm

Not quite as prestigious as the Oscars, but shorter and funkier. Samuel L Jackson is the host this year, in a ceremony which is more about comedy and risk-taking than handing over trophies. Categories to watch out for include best kiss, best fight and, obviously, best song.

	International Rugby Union - LIVE Sky Sports 1 10.30am The performances of England's rugby team since Clive Woodward took over as coach have been both exhilarating and exasperating. This Test against Australian Brisbane signals the start of the southern hemisphere tour - unfortunately, it's a tour too far for some of our best players, who are either injured or below par. Nevertheless, this fixture is never without passion, so expect the tackles to be hard and the tries to be as sparse as when they last met in November for a 15-15 draw.			12midnight The Ten Minute Free View 12.10am David Dickie's Shorts 12.20 Adult Feature 12.45 FILM: Dog Walker 1.00 The Five Minute Free View 1.05 FILM continues 2.00 Sex Talk 2.20 FILM: The Awakening Neighbourly happenings. 3.55-4.00am What's on Tomorrow	12midnight Dish of the Day 12.10am New Model File - Audition 12.35 Lap it Up A special night out at one of London's sexiest and most explicit table dancing clubs. 12.50 FILM: Marilee 2.00 Nude Wives Bedtime Extras 2.50-4.00am FILM: Adult Feature Erotic drama about a bored wife.	8.00pm FILM: Curse of a Faithful Wife Comedy. 9.40 Short Cuts: Deadlock 10.00 FILM: Spring Fever USA Comic adventure. 11.30 Interludes - The Tutor 11.45-12midnight Malibu Hardbodies

	NFL Europe - LIVE Sky Sports 3 6.00pm It's the final week of the season in NFL Europe and the England Monarchs are in Spain to face last year's World Bowl winners, Barcelona Dragons. The Monarchs began this season struggling for any kind of form and their opening three-game losing streak has been difficult to shake off. The Dragons have not shown championship form themselves, but have the flashy kind of offence which will always give them a chance. These two teams met in the first ever World Bowl in 91, so let's hope for the same result - a resounding Monarchs win.			12midnight The Ten Minute Free View 12.10am Adult Feature 12.20 FILM: New Wave Hookers 4 1.00 The Five Minute Free View 1.05 FILM continues 1.30 FILM: Climax 2000 2.40 FILM: Black Tie Affair Adult feature film. 3.55-4.00am What's on Tomorrow	12midnight Dish of the Day 12.10am New Model File - Full Screen Test Erotic entertainment. 12.35 FILM: Uncontrollable Lust Adult drama. 1.50 New Caught at Home Erotic programme. 2.10 FILM: Ghosts Comedy about two ghosts who find that their home is to be bought by two yuppies. 3.20-4.00am Viva Viviana	8.00pm FILM: Season of Change Michael Madson Emotional drama. 9.35 Short Cuts: The Door 9.55 FILM: Time Warp Comedy about an astronaut who accidentally discovers a time warp. 11.30-12midnight Electric Blue Show

Ross in Thailand
Monday 1st 12.30pm

RICE WORK IF YOU CAN GET IT!

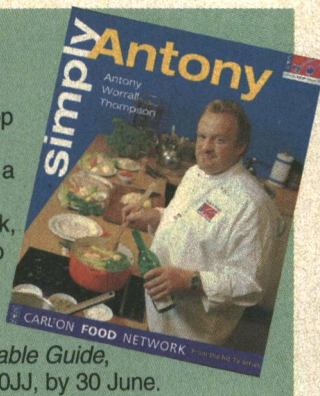

THAI food is becoming increasingly popular in this country, so let Ross in Thailand guide you through the spicy world of Thai cuisine, as well as showcasing life in one of the most beautiful countries in the world. Rice is a key ingredient in Thai food and, in the first episode, Ross Burden travels to a paddy field outside Bangkok to see just how important it is. He also visits the best fish market in Bangkok to determine the worth of fish and oyster in Thai cuisine and hunts down the freshest coriander, lemon grass, chillies and garlic in an exotic market that is open 24 hours a day.

ANTONY WORRALL THOMPSON'S RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

Panzanella (Italian Bread Salad)

Ingredients

- 2 thick slices coarse bread, at least a day old
- 6 ripe tomatoes, cubed
- 1 small red onion, finely diced
- 1/2 cucumber, diced
- 1 stick celery, finely diced
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1/2 cup fresh basil leaves, torn into small pieces
- 1/3 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 tbsp red wine vinegar
- salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method

1. Remove crusts and cut or tear bread into small pieces. Put into bowl and sprinkle with cold water. The bread should be moist but not soggy.
2. Add vegetables, garlic and basil. Dress with oil and vinegar, toss well and adjust seasoning.
3. Allow to stand for 30 minutes so the flavours can blend.
4. This can be served in a salad bowl or on side plates as an accompaniment.

JUNE BIRTHDAYS

- 3rd Penelope Wilton ● 15th Courteney Cox
- 20th Nicole Kidman ● 23rd Adam Faith

Cancer♥♥

22 June-23 July

IF THERE is a rift in a relationship, try to create the perfect setting for love and romance. The stars are a little flippant this month, and you may have to work harder to let someone know you're serious.

Leo♥♥

24 July-23 August

JUST WHEN you think you have all the answers, another mystery may suddenly pop up. You must look upon any obstacles as challenges this month, and bear in mind that variety is the real spice of life.

Virgo♥♥

24 August-23 September

IT MAY be difficult to keep the peace, but you will get full marks for trying. Someone may try to sweet-talk or even browbeat you during June, but as usual you will endeavour to have the last word.

Libra♥♥♥

24 September-23 October

AN UNFORESEEN event or chance meeting may cause you heart to flutter in the weeks ahead. The energy around your sign is both erratic and flirtatious, an interesting combination for romance and all relationships.

Scorpio♥♥

24 October-22 November

ANY PRESSURE you feel this month is likely to be self-inflicted. There will be times when you feel full of self-confidence, and times when you are gripped by fear. Take a step back and view life more objectively.

Sagittarius♥♥

23 November-22 December

YOU COULD be inclined to change your mind at the drop of a hat, or ditch one invitation when a better offer comes along. And while this may add variety to your life, loved ones will probably feel frustrated.

Capricorn♥♥

23 December-20 January

ALTHOUGH YOU make plans with the greatest precision, you can expect a hiccup in proceedings before mid-month. Your chart looks especially busy, and unexpected twists may make your head spin.

Aquarius♥♥

21 January-19 February

YOUR INTENTIONS may be good, but results will probably fall short of your expectations. Channel your energy into romantic and creative pastimes this month, and leave the practical issues until mid-year.

Pisces♥

20 February-20 March

EXPECT A few hurdles on the homefront, despite your efforts to keep the peace. There will be some unpredictable people around you this month, and it may be difficult to keep track of loved ones and their needs.

Aries♥♥

21 March-20 April

YOU CAN get away with almost anything, provided you turn on the charm. However, the stars caution against using straight out manipulation to get what you want. Balance seduction with a little subtlety.

Taurus♥♥

21 April-21 May

SOMEONE WHO plays a big part in your life may let you down or disappoint you this month. But the secret to a happy heart is not to dwell on other people's mistakes. Learn how to forgive and forget.

Gemini♥♥♥

22 May-21 June

AFTER A recent romantic glitch, your love life will be back on track during June. Mars makes you positively irresistible, while Sun in your sign shines positive light on emotional and financial issues.

TURN UP THE VOLUME AND TUNE INTO THE MONTH'S BEST MUSIC ON CABLE

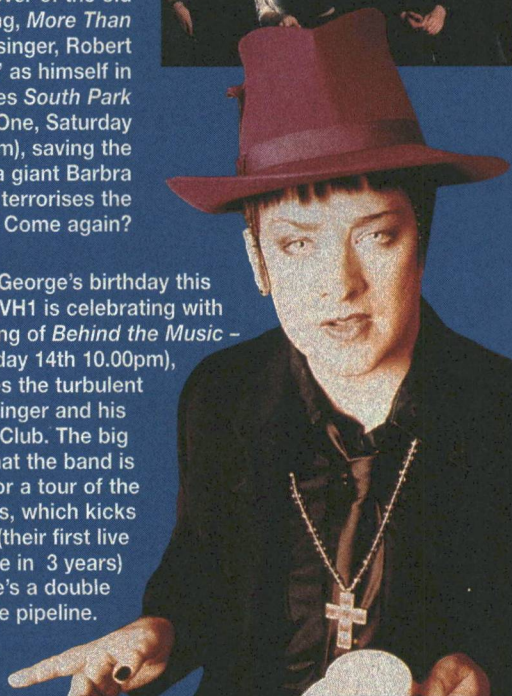

Heard it through the grapevine ...

Debbie, one of the tracks on the The B-52s' current album Time Capsule is a tribute to Blondie frontwoman and Eighties icon Deborah Harry. Catch some of her classic tunes in the premiere of Greatest Hits of ... Blondie (VH1, Sunday 28th, 1.00pm) and see Debbie Harry in Videodrome, David Cronenberg's bizarre film about cable TV (UK Gold Saturday 6th, 12.55am).

The X-Files movie opens in the States this month with news that the soundtrack album includes tracks by The Cardigans, Bjork, Noel Gallagher, Aswad with Sting and The Cure, whose contribution is a cover of the old Roxy Music song, More Than This. The band's singer, Robert Smith, 'appears' as himself in the animated series South Park this month (Sky One, Saturday 13th 10.00pm), saving the day when a giant Barbra Streisand terrorises the town. Come again?

It's Boy George's birthday this month and VH1 is celebrating with a screening of Behind the Music - Boy George (Sunday 14th 10.00pm), which traces the turbulent history of the singer and his band Culture Club. The big news is that the band is reforming for a tour of the United States, which kicks off on 23 July (their first live performance in 3 years) plus there's a double CD in the pipeline.

Here's our pick of 20 of the hottest tracks on The Box this month. To make your request, dial the number on screen, then key in the code for the video of your choice

DISCO FEVER

VH1 has dusted off the disco ball for their Dance 'til Dawn Disco All-Nighter (Saturday 27th 8.00pm), which features some great platform soul tunes by Rose Royce, The Jacksons and Kool & The Gang, among others, from an era that spawned some classic tracks as well some that are best forgotten. Here's our chart of some of the best and worst disco releases ...

HOT

- 1 Disco Inferno (Trammps)
- 2 Boogie Wonderland (Earth, Wind and Fire)
- 3 I Will Survive (Gloria Gaynor)
- 4 Night Fever (Bee Gees)
- 5 Ring My Bell (Anita Ward)

NOT

- 1 Disco Duck (Rick Dees)
- 2 Yes Sir, I Can Boogie (Baccara)
- 3 D.I.S.C.O. (Ottowan)
- 4 In the Navy (Village People)
- 5 Rasputin (Boney M)

Ones to Watch ... Smashing Pumpkins, Ash, Placebo, Damage and Five will feature in Five Night Stand, a series of live gigs recorded at London's Shepherd's Bush Empire in May (MTV, 1-5 June, 9.00pm). The five hour-long programmes will focus on each of the bands, supported by some of the country's hottest new musical talent ... Irish popsters Boyzone show what they're made of in an exclusive performance recorded at the MTV studios (MTV Live, Sunday 21st, 3.30pm) ... VH1's Summer Breeze weekend includes two great concerts - Oasis Live by the Sea, recorded during their 1995 British Seaside tour (VH1, Saturday 20th, 2.00am) and the classic Elvis Aloha from Hawaii (VH1, Sunday 21st, 2.00am).

A Night at the Opera
TNT 11.30pm
A night of joy for Marx Brothers fans as this movie from 1935 has Harpo, Groucho and Chico mixed up in the opera business. All the usual fun is mixed in with some music and song, along with sketches featuring the trio's wonderfully pompous straight woman, Margaret Dumont.

GENERAL

The Evening Standard Ballet, Opera and Classical Music Awards
Performance 9.00pm
A star-studded evening at the Savoy Hotel in London is hosted by Simon Callow as the leading lights in three classical art forms are honoured. Among those attending are Dame Kiri Te Kanawa and Tom Conti, with plenty of awards to hand out.

OPEN SESAME!

TIGER WOODS definitely has a magic touch when he's on the golf course. The 22-year-old from Orlando is one of the most naturally gifted players the world has ever known, and his style has enchanted many – including a sizeable female following who have quickly taken the star to their hearts. He'll be looking to conjure up his first ever victory in the US Open at the Olympic Club in San Francisco, but can expect fierce competition from defending champion Ernie Els and recent US Masters winner Mark O'Meara for the $465,000 first prize. The British challenge is likely to come from Colin Montgomerie, Lee Westwood and Nick Faldo.

Sky Sports 2 from Thursday 18th 7.00pm – LIVE

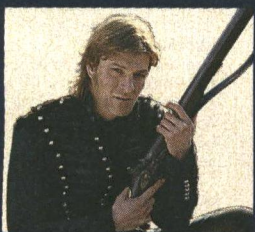

OUT FOR JUSTICE

JACK COLE (Steven Seagal) finds his past coming back to haunt him in The Glimmer Man. He used to be a top US secret agent, performing assassinations in the Third World, but now he's trying to make a fresh start as a detective in New York. In Los Angeles, however, a serial killer is at work who seems to have an unhealthy knowledge of Cole's CV. The pony-tailed action man is left with no alternative but to head for the west coast and team up with local homicide detective Jim Campbell (Keenen Ivory Wayans) to find the murderer. And as every Steven Seagal fan knows, he's always at his best when he's under siege and on dangerous ground.

A dramatic collector's sculpture displayed within a sparkling dome.

IT'S THE ULTIMATE DUEL IN THE STARS! The brave crew of the U.S.S. Enterprise™ fiercely battle their most ruthless adversary in a powerful Klingon Battlecruiser™.

Racing through an asteroid belt at warp speed, these two legendary ships come to life in a spectacular fine art miniature. Every detail, from the Klingon Battlecruiser's reconnaissance sensor to the official seal of the United Federation of Planets, authenticated by Paramount Pictures. Expertly crafted in Tesori porcelain, a blend of powdered porcelain and resins that holds every intricate detail. Then meticulously hand-painted and numbered, and set on a special base beneath a radiant dome.

Priced at just £29.95, this Officially Authorised Collector's Edition sculpture is available exclusively from Franklin Mint.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. If you wish to return any Franklin Mint purchase, you may do so within 30 days of your receipt of that purchase or replacement, credit or refund.

Poetry Competitions

£12,000.00 Prize Money to be Won

The International Library of Poetry has just announced that it is sponsoring an International Amateur Poetry Competition in the United Kingdom and Ireland. There will be eight competitions this year open to all amateur poets. Entry to the competitions is free and there is no purchase requirement to win one of 70 prizes, including a £1,000.00 Grand Prize.

How to Enter

Anyone may enter the competition simply by sending in only one original poem, any subject, any style, to:

The International Library of Poetry
Dept. 9665

FREEPOST LON 2229

SITTINGBOURNE

Kent ME10 3BR

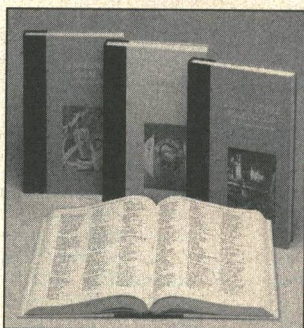

(No stamp required)

(Please note this address is for poems only, all enquiries must be sent to the address below.)

The poem should be no more than twenty lines, must be typed or neatly printed, and the poet's name and address must appear at the top of the page. Poems must be the original work of the submitting author and will not be returned. Closing date for applications is the last day of this month. Any entries received after this date will be submitted in the following competition. All poets who enter will receive an acknowledgement, along with complete competition rules, within nine weeks.

How to Win

All the poems entered into the competition will be judged on originality,

Featured above are some of recently published deluxe hardbound anthologies.

use of language, poetic style, creativity, and artistic expression. In addition to the £1,000.00 Grand Prize, ten Second Prizes of £50.00 each, and 59 Third Prize gifts with a £28.00 value will also be awarded. All 70 prize winners will be featured in a beautiful, hardbound anthology to be published at the conclusion of the competition. And what's more, non-winners may guarantee publication of their poem in this beautiful edition through their purchase of a copy (a pre-publication discount will be available). Every poem remains the exclusive property of its author. Anthologies published by the organisation include: A Lasting Calm, Awaken to a Dream, and Jewels of the Imagination, among others.

For further information and to receive a copy of the rules, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to:

GOOD VERSUS EVIL IN THE YEAR 2000

FEW science fiction and fantasy shows stay the same from year to year. On Star Trek, new cast members come and go, and new alien races lie in wait for our intrepid heroes.

On The X-Files, Mulder and Scully never know what weird monster may appear from the woods of darkest Canada. But this year, one series has changed more than the rest. From the same stable as The X-Files, Millennium is no longer the show about the 'serial killer of the week'. Still undoubtedly the darkest and most grim of the fantasy shows, Millennium has altered its approach considerably during its second season, which is nearing its conclusion on Sky One.

The battle between ultimate good and evil – a theme which inspired The Omen films and their imitators – has come to television, with Aliens star Lance Henriksen as the hero, Frank Black, caught in the middle. Demons and angels from Christian mythology have crossed his path, and in one episode, Somehow, Satan Got Behind Me (above left), the show even followed four devils sitting in a coffee shop moaning about how Frank Black keeps getting in their way.

'Millennium has got some humour in it now,' Henriksen said recently. 'We're letting the humanity come out.' Much of this has come from the two scripts written by Darin Morgan, who penned some of the more blackly humoured episodes of

The X-Files. This was before he joined his brother Glen, who is co-producer of Millennium, as the show's new consulting producer.

The series has increasingly focused on the year 2000, and as the critical date approaches, a cataclysmic battle is also coming, and Frank Black will have to choose which side he's on.

Putting the tale of 'one man's journey through life' alongside age-old conflicts has achieved a balance of fantasy and reality that many series have strived for over the years. As Millennium gears up for its third season, the battle continues. Sky One, Wednesday 3rd, 10.00pm

A battle between good and evil: Lance Henriksen as Frank Black in 'Millennium'

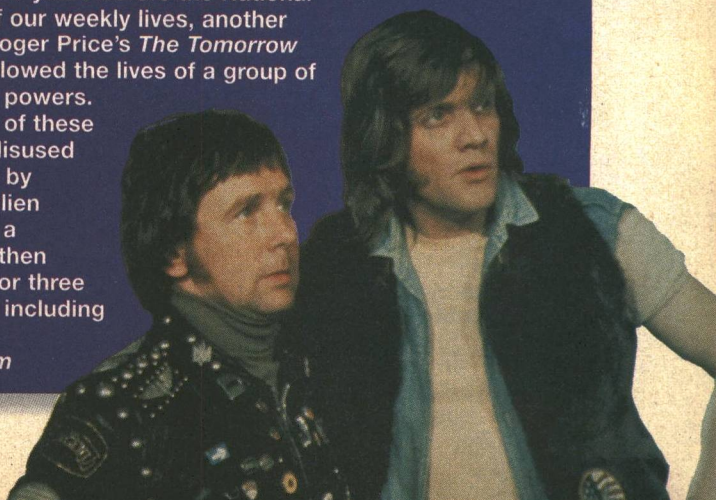

TIME MACHINE

The Tomorrow People

93 episodes, originally screened on ITV, 1973-79 and 1992-95
Starring: Nicholas Young (John), Peter Vaughan-Clarke (Stephen), Sammie Winmill (Carol), Steve Salmon (Kenny), Philip Gilbert (voice of TIM, Timus), Elizabeth Adare (Elizabeth), Dean Lawrence (Tyso), Mike Holloway (Mike), Nigel Rhodes (Andrew), Misako Koba (Hsui Tai), Kristian Schmid (Adam), Kristen Ariza (Lisa), Adam Pearce (Kevin Wilson), Christian Tessier (Marmaduke), Naomie Harris (Ami)

'It could be you!' Over 20 years before the National Lottery became part of our weekly lives, another lottery was going on in a children's science fiction show: Roger Price's The Tomorrow People. Created in 1973 for Thames, the half-hour show followed the lives of a group of teenagers who had 'broken out' and gained special mental powers. No one knew who would be the next to be revealed as one of these 'superior' humans. They operated from a secret base in a disused Underground station, could take themselves anywhere just by thinking about it, and they regularly saved the world from alien threats. Regarded as ITV's answer to Doctor Who, but with a fraction of the budget, it ran for six years in the Seventies, then was revived with Neighbours star Kristian Schmid in 1992 for three more years. Worth watching for the guest stars having fun, including Peter Davison and (in the revival) Christopher Lee. Sci-Fi, Tuesday-Thursday 10.00am, Monday-Tuesday 1.00am

WORLD CUP

Spain v Paraguay - LIVE
Eurosport 7.50pm
One of the interesting aspects of any World Cup is watching teams meet who've never played before. Such is the case tonight as Spain take on a team with a similar Latin temperament. The studs could fly in this one, as well as the long free-kicks.

World Cup Quiz
Where did Jules Rimet keep the World Cup - later to be named after him - for the duration of World War II?
Answer on page 212.

WING AND A PRAYER

WHEN England come face to face with New Zealand in the latest leg of their ongoing southern hemisphere tour, they'll be hoping that Jonah Lomu's name won't be on the opposition team sheet. The giant Kiwi winger has recovered from a career-threatening kidney disorder and has shown signs of getting back to his marauding best in recent times. This is the final match in the two Test mini-series against the All Blacks. England will be looking for a morale-boosting victory before they head off to South Africa to conclude their tour with a Test match against the current world champions.

Sky Sports 1 Friday 26th 3.30am

MATERIAL GIRLS

THE rags-to-riches tale of Argentinian legend Eva Perón seemed an unlikely source for a successful musical, but Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice proved otherwise with their 1978 hit, Evita. Twenty years on, the musical has finally made it to the small screen, and who better to play the wife of dictator Juan Perón than Madonna, a similarly larger-than-life figure? All of the stage hits are here, including Don't Cry for Me Argentina and Another Suitcase in Another Hall, plus a new number written especially for the film, You Must Love Me, which won an Oscar for best song in 1997.

GRIZZLY DETAIL

YOU don't need to be fluent in Latin to work out that an animal called Ursus arctos horribilis is not to be messed with. The grizzly bear is one of the most ferocious animals in the world, and Grizzlies of the Canadian Rockies is a remarkable documentary that bares all about these savage yet beautiful beasts.

THE BEST IN FANTASY & SCIENCE FICTION

ANY 5 FROM ONLY 50p EACH PLUS P&P

Books marked CLUB EDITION are a standard format 204mm x 130mm.

HEROIC ADVENTURE, ACTION, EXCITEMENT? STAY IN BED!

You could pull on your armour or blaster-proof space suit, grab your sword or laser gun and head off in pursuit of the dark rulers of magical lands, or to claim the bounty on inter-galactic pirates.

But waiting at the bus stop dressed like that is not the best way to get to where you want to go.

With the Fantasy & SF Book Club your thirst for adventure can be satisfied without even changing out of your pyjamas – although certain people have been to the end of the universe wearing theirs!

You'll be offered the very best and latest titles from the world's bestselling Fantasy and Science Fiction authors. From Tolkien to Terry Pratchett and Terry Brooks, David Eddings to David Gemmell, Isaac Asimov, William Gibson and Douglas Adams, you'll find what you're looking for.

To become a member of the Fantasy & SF Book Club, choose any five of the books shown here from only 50p EACH (plus £2.95 p&p). BUT SEND NO MONEY NOW – you'll get them all on ten days' approval.

WHAT DO YOU GET?

- A remarkable range of Fantasy and SF books, videos and CD ROMs
- A FREE magazine approximately every two months
- Guaranteed savings of at least 25% off publishers' prices

The 1998 Gold Proof Sovereign is Within Your Grasp - PAY BY INTEREST FREE INSTALMENTS

Since the dawn of time, man has reached out to grasp the beauty of gold. Wrought into ornaments by Aztecs and Egyptians, fought for by Christians, chased by Olympians and treasured by Kings, gold has been used to create coins since the earliest times.

The Gold Proof Sovereign is one of the oldest coins still to be minted, with a history stretching back over 500 years to the reign of Henry VII.

This 1998 22 carat Gold Proof Sovereign marks another milestone in the history of the coin, being the first to bear a new portrait of Her Majesty the Queen by Ian Rank-Broadley F.R.B.S., F.S.N.A.D. on its obverse.

The reverse features Benedetto Pistrucci's famous 1817 effigy of St. George slaying the dragon.

STRICTLY LIMITED EDITIONS WORLDWIDE

Only 7,500* Gold Proof Half-Sovereigns and 10,000* Gold Proof Sovereigns will be made available individually in 1998.

ORDER TODAY TO BE SURE OF YOURS.

*An additional 3,500 Gold Proof Half-Sovereigns and Gold Proof Sovereigns are reserved for inclusion in the Gold Proof Three-Coin and Gold Proof Four-Coin Sovereign Collections.

The Rock
Sky Movies Screen 2 10.00pm
Great action thriller starring Nicolas Cage as a seemingly ineffective FBI scientist, who has to stop a gang of renegade soldiers from blowing up the world from Alcatraz. Sean Connery is Cage's buddy and the twosome develop plenty of on-screen chemistry!

GENERAL

American Masters
Performance 10.30pm
Not a programme about golf, but a documentary looking at the career of film director Martin Scorsese. Best known for his dramas about low-lives and gangsters (ie Mean Streets, GoodFellas). Scorsese's genius is discussed by the likes of Steven Spielberg and George Lucas.

The Go-anywhere Gymbody 8

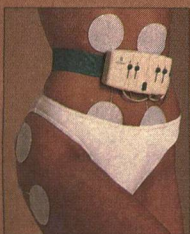

"At last here's an effortless way to get the body of your dreams! Slendertone's Gymbody 8 is the revolutionary secret to a beautiful firm and toned figure. Use it anywhere, even when you've no time for exercise. Gymbody 8 puts those vital muscles through their paces whenever you want, while you get on with your day. 30 years of research and development make this famous beauty treatment lightweight, portable and simple to use in comfort and privacy. Gymbody 8 will work wonders for you as it has for me!"

Pass the jeans test in 3 weeks

"With Gymbody 8, you can easily achieve a flatter tummy and shapelier bottom, in just 3 weeks! Put on a snug pair of trousers and check the difference it makes. Gymbody 8 contracts and relaxes your muscles, 240 times in only 40 minutes – imagine trying to do that number of sit-ups! Gymbody 8 does all the work for you!"

Every workout feels great

"As your muscles are stimulated, you'll feel a massaging, tingling sensation – and you can adjust Gymbody 8 to make your workout completely comfortable. There's no risk of strain or burnout – instead, you feel relaxed, toned refreshed and revitalised."

Maximum results minimum effort

"It's so simple! Attach the belt holding the small battery-operated unit around your waist, place the pads on the muscles to be exercised and switch on. Just sit back, relax and watch those muscles work. Or you can walk the dog, watch TV, or do whatever you choose."

Tried, tested and acclaimed by experts

"Electronic Muscle Stimulation (EMS) used in Gymbody 8 is developed from the pioneering work by Bio Medical Research, the manufacturers of Slendertone's Gymbody 8. Try this totally safe and portable body beautifier and reap the benefits for years to come."

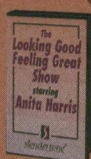

The shape up programme with everything you need

"Gymbody 8 comes with all you need for a firm, toned, shapely figure – it even improves your posture, too. What better fitness friend could you have?"

Shire SWITCH ON TENS

Help SWITCH OFF PAIN

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulation (TeNS) control of pain relies on the "gate theory" first put forward in the 1950's by British neuroanatomist Patrick Wall and Canadian psycho physiologist Ronald Melzack. Following 10 years of research Wall and Melzack concluded that one type of nerve fibre carries the "hurt" or pain message to the brain, while a second thicker type of nerve fibre is capable of acting in a contradictory way by blocking out (or erecting a gate to) the "hurt" signal, thereby preventing its transmission to the brain.

Research studies show that TeNS produces an intense stimulation which activates an area of the brain which, in turn, inhibits the pathways that transmit pain signals. Although it is not a cure, TeNS is now accepted by the medical profession as being of significant benefit to many in controlling most kinds of physical pain, and is now employed with increasing success in NHS Hospitals and Clinics throughout the UK.

When pain cuts like a knife

For the countless millions suffering pain due to sports injuries, muscle strains, joint problems, period pains or other causes, the TeNS approach to pain management and control offers an ideal, non-invasive, drug free approach to living a normal life.

TeNS has a remarkably wide range of applications: Neck • Spine • Waist • Shoulders • Elbows • Wrists • Hips • Knees • Ankles • Feet

While it is important to stress that TeNS is not suitable for everyone (specifically those who suffer heart disease or who have a pacemaker fitted) TeNS has proved beneficial in alleviating pain for the vast majority of users.

Shire Design are one of the largest manufacturers of TeNS units in Europe and are at the forefront of research and development. Shire TeNS have a range of competitively priced (£50 to £100), easy to use, discreet, compact home units to suit every pocket and situation. Shire TeNS units are supplied to and used by Hospitals and Clinics.

These are genuine extracts from letter received from Shire Design customers. The originals are available for inspection in their offices, along with many others.

"I annually award my own New Year honour to the best thing that has happened to me during the previous year and without a shadow of doubt I award this to your magnificent TeNS apparatus for the outstanding - not to say 'UP-STANDING' - improvement it has made to my life."

N. Richards, Merseyside.

"Reference the Sigma machine I purchased from you some time ago, I am pleased to say it has given me so much pain relief that I am now able to walk about, and cover several miles."

R. Whitton, Northampton.

"It works, it really works. When it arrived, I took one look at it and thought, what a waste of time. After 3 days I tried it out and it has transformed my life."

L.J. Davidson, Worcester.

"I am writing to let you know how delighted I am with my Sigma TeNS it has brought me great relief and I do not have to take pain tablets any more I just use my TeNS."

J.W. Whalley, Lincs.

Shire SIGMA has two independently controlled outputs for treating those large areas of pain, or alternatively treat two completely different areas at the same time, choosing exactly the right level of stimulation for each. Shire SIGMA has 3 different types of computer controlled stimulation to suit all your needs - (1) Massage (2) Pulsing (3) Continuous.

Ergonomically styled with sturdy clothing clip, a cable grip to prevent accidental disconnection as well as large rotary controls Shire SIGMA offers the relief you require and performance you expect from Shire TeNS.

WORLD CUP

USA v Yugoslavia - LIVE
Eurosport 7.50pm
Experts say Yugoslavia could have ruled the football world before the country was torn apart. Well, it's still not too late, because any team that can win a play-off 12-1 has a chance against anyone. They should prove too strong for the USA.

World Cup Quiz
In total, how many players did Brazil use during the 1962 World Cup tournament?

The world's most famous teddies reproduced in miniature

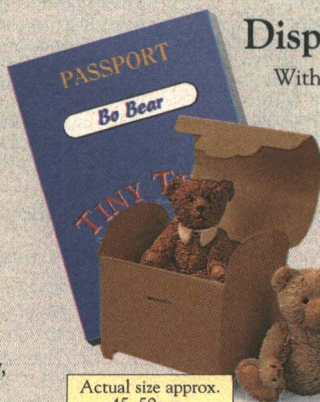

'Happy', the original 1926 Steiff bear

Now, you can enjoy all the pleasure of collecting these famous bears thanks to an exclusive new series from Mayfair Edition. Inspired by the "Dorling Kindersley's best selling teddy bear books", Tiny Teds is a remarkable celebration of the teddy bear across the decades. Each miniature teddy is styled on the original, sculpted by hand in resin, then delicately hand-painted and finished. The result is a bear of exquisite detail and accuracy.

Reserve 'Happy' the first bear in your collection today!

Manufactured by the famous Steiff company, 'Happy' is the most expensive teddy bear ever to be auctioned, fetching some £55,000 at Sotheby's. Then look forward to receiving much loved teddies including Bing Oh, Wistful and Jackie-Baby.

Actual size approx. 45-50mm.

Your FREE Display Cabinet

With your fourth delivery, you will also receive, free of charge, the Tiny Ted Display Cabinet. Crafted from solid wood and polished to a lustrous finish, it is the perfect place to display your complete collection.

YOUR GUARANTEE

All teddies are sent on 15 day approval. If you are ever less than delighted with any piece, simply return it to us without obligation

At last! A reassuring way of coping with unexpected expenses

Your cash is available at any time

It can happen any time – unexpected expenses for which you need extra cash – those difficult moments in life for which you can't plan. That is why there is nothing more useful than a special cash reserve to draw upon at such times. With Direct Cash, you can spend up to £1,000, whenever you want for whatever you need!

Cash to spend on whatever you want

The £1,000 is entirely yours to spend on whatever you want. You don't have to tell us you want it to buy a computer, go on holidays or finance a wedding reception – we don't need to know. Once your application form has been approved, just call us and we'll transfer the money directly to your bank account.

Repayment to suit your pocket

Monthly Repayments are made over any period you choose. We only ask that you pay a minimum of £50 each month, but you can make quick extra repayments at any time. The choice is always yours. What's more, as you repay us your cash reserve builds back up to re-use again!

No hidden costs: everything explained simply & clearly

Direct Cash is designed as a simple cash scheme for everyone. There are no hidden costs, no sudden surprises, and you will always know the position of your Direct Cash reserve. This is what makes Direct Cash a highly attractive facility in times of need, with absolutely no complicated features.

To receive full information, with no obligation whatsoever, simply contact us today on Freephone 0800 038 0123 or return the coupon below.

- Once your Direct Cash reserve has been accepted, one simple telephone call and Cofidis will transfer up to £1,000 to your bank account.
- Fast, simple and discreet service
- Repayments over a period that suits you (£50 minimum monthly payment)
- Use the cash for whatever you please
- No unnecessary correspondence or confusing paperwork.
- Direct Cash service has enjoyed more than 15 years of satisfied customers in Europe
- Free offer, with no obligation

5 Reasons why Cofidis has more than 4 million customers.

Jennifer Connors, Customer Services Manager

1. RELIABLE

Cofidis has been offering credit reserves throughout Europe since 1982, and more than 4,000,000 people have already taken advantage of this simple solution.

2. SIMPLE

If, for whatever reason, you require a specific amount of money at your disposal, you only need to call our freephone number to receive – £200, £500, £1,000 in one or several transfers. The amount you request is immediately transferred to your bank account for you to use freely.

3. QUICK

As soon as you call us, you can be sure that the amount requested will be transferred within 48 hours. A fast service to remedy your urgent needs.

4. CHEAP

With Direct Cash, you only pay interest on the amount you have actually used. There are never any administration charges or fees to open the reserve. If you draw nothing, you will not pay anything, along with the reassurance of having £1,000 at your disposal at any time.

5. FLEXIBLE

You can use your cash reserve for as long as you want and as often as you want. Even if you haven't fully paid back the amount borrowed, you can still use Direct Cash for the available amount. Direct Cash is a very flexible and very simple credit formula.

I hope to be able to count you very soon as one of our many satisfied customers.

'Star Trek: Voyager' – an uninterrupted journey?

A fitting tribute

I HAVE just finished watching LIVE TV's film tribute to Princess Diana [12 April] and have to admit that this presentation was very insightful into how Diana must have felt with all the press attention. This film made me appreciate her life's worth more – for all she put up with, she still strived for the good of others. I expected this film to be crude and in bad taste, but it proved to be neither. Of course I found it distressing, but not because of any injustice. Simply because Diana will always be loved and missed very much. My heart breaks each time I think of this exceptional lady who died so tragically, but I do feel that this film's portrayal serves her memory well.

'Dwarfs' hits the heights

HAVING watched Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs [Disney, 12 April], I was reminded very much of Princess Diana – only in real life, the princess didn't wake up. After all these years, it is still a remarkable piece of film. Let's hope for more fairy-tale romances to come.

Middlesbrough

Direct hit

MAY I congratulate Sci-Fi Channel for its showing of Asteroid [13 April], part one of which I thoroughly enjoyed. I also found part two very realistic, as a piece of the asteroid must have hit the channel transmitter. As soon as Texas was destroyed in the film, I watched a blank screen for one-and-a-half hours. However, at 12midnight, once Asteroid had finished, normal service resumed. Would Sci-Fi Channel be willing to show the entire episode again?

G McKie

Chorlton, Manchester

● Sci-Fi replies: 'We're very sorry to hear that an asteroid splinter appeared to interrupt your enjoyment of Asteroid. This was, in fact, caused by an operational difficulty that was beyond the Sci-Fi Channel's control. We are currently taking steps to make sure this doesn't happen again. There will be another chance to see Asteroid when we show it as part of a planet-busting package in October.'
Congratulations, Mr McKie! You win our £5 prize.

Mad about Monty

I WAS outraged when Monty Python was taken from our screens from January onwards. I am a crazed fanatic of this hilarious comedy and had considered lodging a rude complaint to whoever thought it necessary to get rid of the side-splitting show.

However, the meaning was put back into life when I opened April's Cable Guide and found that the wonderful people at Paramount had dedicated a whole weekend to the only thing worth watching on TV. Thanks for keeping the insanity level up in my house, and feel free to shove more at us.

What the Dickens?

I HAD looked forward to seeing the film Oliver Twist [Disney Channel, 21 March]. But how disappointing it turned out to be, almost unrecognisable from the book that Charles Dickens wrote describing Victorian England. What a pity the producers did not take time to read the book and get a few facts right in the storyline. To be fair to them, it must be very hard to produce anything so moving as the book and try to put the whole thing into a 90-minute slot, less all the breaks for adverts. One day, hopefully, the original David Lean film will be shown on television. That at least was more authentic and quite possibly might make the children of today realise how lucky they are.

Bring back Letterman!

WOULD someone mind telling me why Sky One is no longer playing The Late Show with David Letterman? I have been a fan of his for three years and enjoy his show a great deal. After all, he is the king of late night chat and I can't think of anything or anyone that could replace him. Please tell me there's a good reason for the move.

Kirsty Dziennik
Edinburgh

● BSkyB decided not to buy the rights to the next series of The Late Show with David Letterman. Another station, however, is in talks to buy the United Kingdom rights to the show, so watch this space.

'Tour of Duty' goes AWOL

I AM a big fan of Tour of Duty, which was until recently shown on Bravo at 9.00pm. Much to my dismay, I found that halfway through the series, two cop shows have taken its place [Real Stories of the Highway Patrol, Cops]. I find it in extremely bad taste that a programme I watched and enjoyed is cancelled halfway through the series. Also, I find there are enough cop shows on Sky One. Why is it necessary to show more?

Robert Mills
Cheltenham

● Bravo replies: 'We have been running Tour of Duty since 3 February, 1997, and we felt it needed a rest. We still have it under license and would consider putting it back into the schedule at some stage. Regarding Cops and Real Stories of the Highway Patrol, we feel they are shows that are pertinent to the channel profile. This has been substantiated by good audience figures since they came back into the schedule.'

Oldly going

PLEASE can you explain how Sky One can justify starting a new series of Star Trek: Voyager with a lot of publicity, then after only one episode show repeats of older shows? Don't tell me it's because the later episodes are not ready to broadcast yet, as plenty of episodes from this season are already on video. I feel frustrated about this as one of the reasons I subscribe is to see new episodes of Star Trek. If it's a problem, don't show new episodes until you can get a clear run without interrupting with old stuff.

Greg Bird
Peterborough

● Sky replies: 'Due to a contractual dispute, we were unable to broadcast the new series of Star Trek: Voyager as originally planned. This has now been corrected and the series is being shown without interruption.'

All fight on the night

HAVING watched WWF Wrestlemania XIV on Sky Sports 1 [29 March], I don't think I have ever seen an event so exciting and enjoyable. Nothing prepared me for the skill, showmanship, surprise and hilarious commentary supplied by JR – Jim Ross – and the 'King' Lawler, not to mention Mike 'The Enforcer' Tyson, who came good in the end. Brilliant television, I only wish I could have been there. Stone Cold rules!

Music to the 'ER's

AS A huge fan of ER, I wait eagerly for the trailers so I can see what's going to happen in the coming episode. However, recently I have found myself eagerly awaiting the trailer because the music used is so fab. Please, please, please tell me who the artist is, what the song is called and is it available to buy?

Emma Hanson

● The music used is The Lightning Seeds' Waiting for Today to Happen
